

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

APRIL 18, 2021

3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." - Lk 24:45-46

FROM THE PASTOR...

April 18, 2021

The two chalices and the ciborium are now back from being re-plated and they look glorious! These were sterling silver to begin with and were cleaned and gold plated as needed. The ciborium was already being used in the tabernacle, but now is even more fitting to hold the Body of Christ. The two chalices are ready for our own use or for visiting priests as well, please see the included pictures so you can know that your generous donations were well spent. The tabernacle is not completed yet but should be ready within a few weeks. I'll keep you posted.

Last weekend's Divine Mercy chaplet and benediction was fairly well attended and something we will continue in the future. Next year we can have one of our cantors join us and sing the chaplet which will make it even more beautiful. Ultimately though, the knowledge of Jesus' love and mercy towards us through the Divine Mercy image and mostly the Holy Eucharist is what gives us consolation and encouragement in the face of human misery...Jesus, I trust in you!

This is the 3rd Sunday of Easter and the readings make us think of the question: What would it take for us to have a deeper faith? So often we think that if God just worked more amazing miracles then everyone would believe. I once read a troubled atheist online say that he would only believe in God if an amputee grew back an arm or a leg. But Jesus did perform such miracles on paralytics and the man with the withered hand. We heard in the first reading that the same people that heard about and saw Jesus' miracles were the ones who killed Him. Some even accused Christ of being possessed by demons.

The Old and New Testaments, the teachings of the Church and private revelations through saints are ways we come to recognize Christ. The Lord says, "this is the word that I spoke to you, that everything written about Me must be fulfilled." Signs, wonders and miracles alone can't replace our needing to hear the story of salvation first. The miracles and signs that God sent and continues to send will confirm the Word of God in Sacred Scripture but not replace it.

For example, you've all heard the story of Fatima when God had the Blessed Mother appear to children in Portugal and give them messages to remind the world to pray, fast and repent like what we heard today. The Virgin Mary said that at her sixth and final appearance God would work a miracle to confirm the words that she told them. But without the words to trust, the miracle of the sun at Fatima would just have appeared as a strange astrological event. People might say "did you see the sun change colors and move around strangely?" Like when the risen Lord appeared in the Gospel today at first, they were terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost. Our Lord had to remind them of the word He had spoken, that He must suffer and die and on the third day, rise. He reminded them that the Scriptures revealed who He was.

If we want our faith to grow, rather than start with seeking and asking for signs which we can do, we should first be open to the Word that God has spoken. There are some great easy to read Scripture commentaries (I highly recommend Dr. Brant Pitre), digestible versions of the catechism and other Church teachings and writings from saints that help us to understand the Word of God more deeply. Sunday is the perfect day to discuss with family or friends something that struck you from the readings.

God bless,
Fr. Mike

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter Christ within us.

Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the St Elizabeth of the Trinity Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference? Please contact the Rectory if you are interested.

It's Like Having Dinner with the King!

The next part of the Mass is the Gospel, which I think most everyone is familiar with. I will just mention that it, like everything else up to this point, can (and sometimes should) be sung. And now, the moment we have all been waiting for with bated breath...the first part of the Mass that the Church does not provide specific text for, and which is not sung, is the homily or sermon. The homily is meant to “unpack” the Mass, not only the Readings, but the rest of the Ordinary and Propers as well (see General Instruction of the Roman Missal 65-66, Sacrosanctum Concilium 52, and Canon Law 767). Because this is the only time during the Mass where the priest is speaking colloquially to us (exceptions being made for the announcements and brief introductions/explanations - see GIRM 50, 90) there is no chant ascribed. The homily is also not technically part of the Ordinary or Propers as its text is not prescribed by the Church, rather, composed by the minister.

Following the homily is a period of silence - just as after all the readings. This period of silence is really important. In teaching we call it wait time - giving each student a good amount of time to really think about something before moving on. Like with a fine multi-course meal, the Lord “feeds” us with His word, and then gives us some time to digest it before moving on. Imagine the terrible experience you would have at a 13-course meal if the waiter brought out all 13 courses at the same time! The salad gets soggy, the steak grows cold, and the ice cream melts - all while you are trying to find places to put all the food because your table is too small. In a similar manner, we need this time of Sacred Silence to fully “digest” and “enjoy the fruits” of the Word of God (see GIRM 56).

RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself and share a very exciting announcement. My name is Victoria Hastings. My husband Kevin and our families have recently become parishioners of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity. As previous parishioners of St. Cornelius, we understand that transitions may be difficult, but we have fallen in love with St. Elizabeth of the Trinity and are very excited for the bright future of our new parish.

Being a registered nurse, I am passionate about protecting and enhancing human life at all stages. As a result of my passion, and the passion held by so many of our fellow parishioners who have already accomplished such great achievements in support of life, I am excited to announce the formation of The Respect Life Committee at St. Elizabeth of the Trinity. Due to the importance of such work, I have eagerly volunteered to take the lead on this committee at Father Mike's request and am looking forward to all that we can accomplish together.

Our very first event is the wonderful Mother's Day Flower Sale on Sunday, May 9th in support of The Women's Center located right here in our neighborhood. Please stay tuned for details in future bulletins!

If you are interested in joining, volunteering, or simply learning more about The Respect Life Committee, please contact me directly at: v.annahastings@gmail.com. (Please note: this email address replaces the incorrect address which was in last week's bulletin,)

LIFE WITH CHRIST IS A WONDERFUL ADVENTURE!-POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

RE CALENDAR

SUNDAY, APRIL 18TH
VIRTUAL CLASSES

SUNDAY, MAY 2ND
IN-PERSON CLASSES

During these 50 days of the Easter Season, we hear many stories of the Risen Lord visiting people, such as in today's Gospel when Christ walks the road from Jerusalem to Emmaus with the two disciples. Imagine being those two disciples!

The Road to Emmaus gives us an analogy for our own Christian experience. Just as each of the two disciples experienced joy, wonder and misunderstanding, so, too, do we in our own journey towards Christ. We experience wonder at new information, go through moments of misunderstanding, find Truth in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition and experience joy in the Sacraments. These experiences help us to know and love Jesus Christ and, like the two disciples, move us to share the Good News of Christ with those around us.

Saint George
Saint George was a brave soldier in the Roman army. The Emperor, Diocletian, hated Christians! Saint George stood up to him and told Diocletian that he was wrong.

Saint George was brave enough to stand up to an evil ruler, so he is usually drawn fighting a dragon. Add a dragon to this picture.
