

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

AUGUST 15, 2021

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

"From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly."

- Lk 1:48b-49, 52

FROM THE PASTOR...

August 15, 2021

We are planning on switching the weekday evening English Confessions and Mass offering to Tuesday evening, rather than Thursday. Thursdays sometime has wedding rehearsals, and a Tuesday evening offering allows us the chance to extend Eucharistic Adoration throughout the afternoon to the time chosen. Over 80 people have expressed interest in a weekday evening Mass, but respondents are almost perfectly split between wanting a 6:00 p.m. Mass or 7:00 p.m. Mass. If you would be willing to be one of the adorers before the Lord in the mid to late afternoon, please email Jim Madura.

One of our industrious Boy Scouts, Nicholas Pautsch, is working on a wonderful Eagle Scout project for the parish that includes sanding/staining the wooden side vestibule church doors and installing a steel gate and fence by the school office. Nick might need a little bit more funding for the project, so please donate if you can through his gofundme page at: gofund.me/59e6e5c1

The utility review of our parking lot plans have been taken to be reviewed by the city, so our general contractor hasn't been hired yet, but we still hope that the lot will be finished by the winter. Just so you know, we will have the weeds removed from the currently vacant, lot but do advise people not to park there or let children play there due to the glass, metal, and other debris that might be a little dangerous. Please be careful.

We just received sad news that Fr. Dan Fallon, the former pastor at St. Cornelius, has been diagnosed with esophageal cancer. He is not sure of its spread or severity yet but has asked us to let you know to pray for him and that he will keep us posted. Fr. Fallon wants to stay as active as he can in ministry before he starts treatment so you will be able to see him on the 3rd Sunday of the month at his Mass and you can always get his forwarding email or mailing address from the rectory to stay in touch and wish him well. Please pray for Fr. Dan Fallon and perhaps send him a kind message if you can.

We will be having a parish and school staff retreat on Friday, August 20th, after the morning Mass. Please pray for us that we might grow together as we strive to serve all of you in the Lord. One question I was asked as part of the RMC process that I will ask the staff and rhetorically ask all of you is, "What is a parish for?" Christ is meant to be known and loved through the parish, school, RE, and all the parish ministries. Everyone has their job or role to play on staff, but all of us can contribute to the overall mission. The love of Jesus Christ for us can be received and shared by all of us. Please join us for morning Mass that Friday and pray for a good, Christ-centered retreat.

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary was taken body and soul into heavenly glory at the end of her earthly life. Because of her immaculate conception and sinless life, her assumption serves as a glimpse as to what our moving from time into eternity might have looked like before sin entered the world. May the Blessed Mother serve as an encouraging reminder to us that even though we do not share her sinlessness on earth we may share in the joy and fullness of heaven that her Son won for us.

God bless,
Fr. Mike

In today's Gospel, even the child in Elizabeth's womb leaps with joy at the approach of Mary, the "lowly servant," who by accepting God's plan for her, became blessed for all generations.

With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use...and give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

St Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish Social - Saturday, September 11, 2021

4:00 p.m. Mass*, followed by food, music, and fun for the whole family!

Let's come together to thank God for the gift of our parish and all it has to offer.

We hope you can join us!

* There will not be a 5:00 p.m. Mass on this day.

In the weeks leading up to the event, we will be highlighting all the different groups our parish/school has to offer. Here are the next two:

Ministers of Care

The mission of the Ministers of Care is to bring the Body of Christ to parishioners who are unable to attend Mass. Through a short prayer service prior to receiving the Eucharist, we help maintain a connection with those who are confined to their home or a nursing home/assisted living facility. Parishioners can contact Deacon Steve Wagner through the parish office to set up a visit. MOC are volunteers who express a calling to share their love of the Eucharist and want to share their faith. All MOC should be devout Catholics who complete the five-session training class, the volunteer requirements of the Archdiocese of Chicago for those who work with vulnerable adults, and commit to regular visits to their assigned homebound parishioner.

Parish Finance Council

The purpose of Parish Finance Council is to advise the pastor in fulfilling his duty of being a good steward of our parish resources. In addition, they provide accountability to parishioners and the archdiocese.

If anyone is interested in learning more, you can contact Bill O'Hara at: williamohara@hotmail.com. A professional background in accounting, finance or project/construction management is ideal, along with the ability to meet monthly.

NOTICE

Due to an entire parish and school staff retreat day, the rectory office will be closed this Friday, August 20 until 1:00 p.m.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Question:

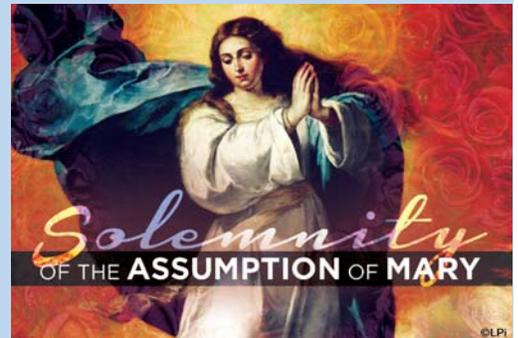

What lessons should I learn from the Assumption of Mary?

Answer:

Growing in holiness is similar to training in a sport. We need someone to show us how we can live our faith well. Mary is a model of sanctity. She shows us how to be faithful to God's will, living each day with confidence in God's mercy and love. At the Nativity, in Jesus' public ministry, and at the Crucifixion, we see her steadfast trust. She allows the Lord to use her life to accomplish his plan for her and for all of us. In the Preface of the Mass for the Assumption of Mary, we pray: "For today the Virgin Mother of God was assumed into heaven as the beginning and image of your Church's coming to perfection and a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people."

It is this image of holiness that we strive to imitate. In the office, at home, or in our community, we look for signs of God's grace that call us to an ever greater love of him and each other. A greater awareness of God is a sign of our conversion of heart that lives the lessons Mary teaches.

USHERS NEEDED

We can use additional usher assistance at most of our Masses. Ushers help with the collection, pass out worship aids and bulletins, help at Communion time, answer questions, recruit people to bring up the gifts, keep the church tidy between Masses and act as greeters. You should be of high school age or older. You are also an ideal candidate if you attend the same Mass each weekend. Please consider helping to fill this important need!

If you would like to be a part of this ministry contact Jim Madura at 773 763-8228 or at jmadura@archchicago.org or talk to a current usher at any Mass. Thank you for your consideration!

LIFE WITH CHRIST IS A WONDERFUL ADVENTURE!-POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

Summer with the Saints: Queen of Saints

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary's Assumption, which Pope Pius XII declared a dogma of the Catholic Church in 1950. On this day, we celebrate that Our Blessed Mother was assumed (taken up) body and soul into Heaven. Evidence of this belief dates back to the early Church where liturgies were sung and icons were made to commemorate the event.

This feast day is one of the most cheerful in the Church. Throughout Eastern Europe, girls bring bouquets to church for blessings and in Poland parades wind through the villages carrying flowers to the local church. Some ways to celebrate this feast at home:

- Go to Mass
- Pray the Glorious Mysteries together as a family
- Create a Mary Garden (indoors or outdoors) around your family's statue of Our Lady using any blue flowers (the color of Our Lady- you could try Morning Glories or Bachelor Buttons), Roses, Marigolds ("Mary's Gold"), Rosemary (has her name in there) or Lilies, a symbol of the Annunciation

Register today!

Registration is now open for the 2021-2022 Religious Education Program for students in 1st-8th grades. Take advantage of the Early Bird Discount by submitting the registration form and payment by August 31st! Scan the QR Code to complete the registration form.

Pick up a Catholic Kids Bulletin each week on your way in or out of church. They are on the table inside the front doors.

Looking for a way to get involved? We are looking for volunteers to serve as catechists in the RE Program as well as leaders for Children's Liturgy of the Word. Contact Kathleen Driscoll, kadriscoll@archchicago.org, if you would like to volunteer.

All volunteers must fulfill the volunteer requirements of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist: Basic Questions and Answers – Part 2 of 8

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. God's whole plan for our salvation is directed to our participation in the life of the Trinity, the communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our sharing in this life begins with our Baptism, when by the power of the Holy Spirit we are joined to Christ, thus becoming adopted sons and daughters of the Father. It is strengthened and increased in Confirmation. It is nourished and deepened through our participation in the Eucharist. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:56). In being united to the humanity of Christ we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life. "Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me" (Jn 6:57). By being united to Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us, we are drawn up into the eternal relationship of love among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As Jesus is the eternal Son of God by nature, so we become sons and daughters of God by adoption through the sacrament of Baptism. Through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation (Chrismation), we are temples of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us, and by his indwelling we are made holy by the gift of sanctifying grace. The ultimate promise of the Gospel is that we will share in the life of the Holy Trinity. The Fathers of the Church called this participation in the divine life "divinization" (theosis). In this we see that God does not merely send us good things from on high; instead, we are brought up into the inner life of God, the communion among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In the celebration of the Eucharist (which means "thanksgiving") we give praise and glory to God for this sublime gift.

Does the bread cease to be bread and the wine cease to be wine?

Yes. In order for the whole Christ to be present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—the bread and wine cannot remain, but must give way so that his glorified Body and Blood may be present. Thus in the Eucharist the bread ceases to be bread in substance, and becomes the Body of Christ, while the wine ceases to be wine in substance, and becomes the Blood of Christ. As St. Thomas Aquinas observed, Christ is not quoted as saying, "This bread is my body," but "This is my body" (Summa Theologiae, III q. 78, a. 5).

Is it fitting that Christ's Body and Blood become present in the Eucharist under the appearances of bread and wine?

Yes, for this way of being present corresponds perfectly to the sacramental celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus Christ gives himself to us in a form that employs the symbolism inherent in eating bread and drinking wine. Furthermore, being present under the appearances of bread and wine, Christ gives himself to us in a form that is appropriate for human eating and drinking. Also, this kind of presence corresponds to the virtue of faith, for the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be detected or discerned by any way other than faith. That is why St. Bonaventure affirmed: "There is no difficulty over Christ's being present in the sacrament as in a sign; the great difficulty is in the fact that He is really in the sacrament, as He is in heaven. And so believing this is especially meritorious" (In IV Sent., dist. X, P. I, art. un., qu. I). On the authority of God who reveals himself to us, by faith we believe that which cannot be grasped by our human faculties (cf. Catechism, no. 1381).
