WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

WeAreMissionary.org/wms

October 24, 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today we are reminded in two ways to be persistent missionary disciples of Jesus Christ. In his message for World Mission Sunday, the Holy Father encourages us, "As Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves: the Church's evangelizing mission finds outward fulfillment in the transformation of our world and in the care of creation." At the same time, with the opening of the Synodal Process around the world, Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium" (Address for the ceremony commemorating the 50th anniversary of the institution of the Synod of Bishops, 17 October 2015).

We celebrate World Mission Sunday with the Universal Church on October 24, offering prayer and reflection on our mission to proclaim the gospel to all the nations. The collection taken this day supports over 1,000 mission dioceses through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. These local churches are the poorest in the world and yet they joyfully share the Lord and provide hope amidst struggles in Africa, Asia and remote areas of Latin America and the Pacific Islands. The collection also provides for mission dioceses in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe through the Catholic Near East Welfare Association.

Also, during this time, The Church of God is convoked in Synod. Today, the Archdiocese of Chicago is celebrating the opening of the process for the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, in October 2023. The theme of this synod is "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission" and so is intimately tied to our celebration of World Mission.

This global pandemic has highlighted the peripheries of our world and the importance of widening our circles to reach out to neighbors both nearby and far away. Let this celebration of World Mission Sunday and the opening of the Synodal Process be an opportunity for pause and prayerful solidarity with our sisters and brothers in faith around the world. May we give thanks for their witness and recommit ourselves to our own call to be missionary disciples. With every wish, I remain.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

When you give furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

The Choir is Coming! The Choir is Coming!

After what seems like an eternity, we are finally able to bring back the Parish Choir! If you have sung at Mass before, or if you are able to harness your voice to worship our Lord, please consider joining the Parish Choir.

Rehearsals will begin TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19th from 7:15-8:15 p.m. in the choir loft.

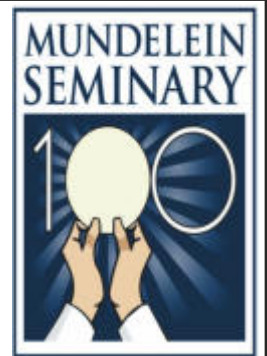

In addition to preparing our voices, we will also determine our schedule for the remainder of the year, with the goal of being present at the 9 :00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses and starting to sing at Mass by the first weekend of November.

We hope to see you 10/19 at 7:15 p.m. in Church!

Holy Hour for Vocations with Mundelein Seminary

Join us for a Holy Hour on Thursday, October 21 at 6:00 p.m. in church to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and to celebrate Mundelein Seminary's centennial. Seminary staff will be bringing a beautiful historic monstrance that was used at the 1926 International Eucharistic Congress held on the seminary grounds. This will be a great opportunity to come together in prayer and learn more about the vital mission of Mundelein Seminary in forming your future parish priests.

A representative from Mundelein Seminary will be in the vestibule offering information on other Centennial Celebration events that you can attend, as well as names of seminarians that you can take to pray for and some fun Mundelein giveaways. They will be happy to answer any questions you may have or tell you more about the seminary, so please stop by on your way out.

Light refreshments will be served after in the vestibule.

Parish Movie Night presented by The Respect Life Committee

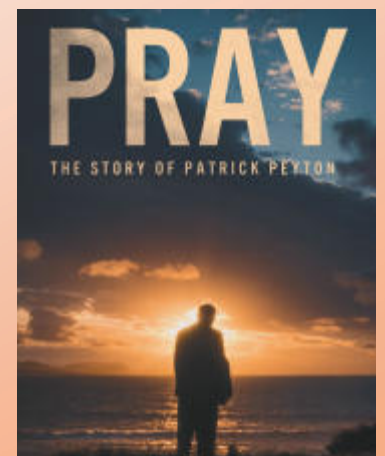

The Respect Life Committee would like to invite everyone to our very first Parish Movie Night for the showing of PRAY: The Story of Patrick Peyton. Let us gather as a parish to discover how family prayer can be a source of peace in our home. Hear families share stories of how praying together has opened their hearts to the presence of God and the Blessed Virgin Mary. Meet Father Patrick Peyton, the remarkable priest who championed the phrase, "The Family That Prays Together Stays Together," and spent his life calling families to unite in prayer. You can watch the movie trailer on YouTube: <https://youtu.be/8UehA0J5U34>

Please join us in the school auditorium on Friday, October 22, 2021. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., seating will begin at 6:00 p.m. Hospitality will be provided. Movie will be showcased in English with Spanish subtitles.

If you are interested in volunteering your time on the day of the event, please contact Victoria Hastings at v.annahastings@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing you there!

PRAYER SHAWL GROUP

Prayer Shawl started with a bang in September! 98 year old Marie Brasher brought in 11 plastic mats she made during the pandemic. Marie used her “at home” time very well!

These mats are crocheted out of plastic grocery bags, flattened out, cut into strips, looped together, and rolled into balls of plarn (plastic yarn). Only then can you start to crochet the mats. Each mat uses approximately 600 bags. The completed mats are then given to the St. Vincent de Paul Society to distribute to the homeless so they do not have to sleep on the ground or cold floors.

Other members brought in many scarves, hats, and prayer shawls that they had made during this special time. These, too, will be distributed to those who need them.

It was inspiring to see that our members thought about others during the forced isolation.

Our next meeting will be Monday, October 25 at 7 p.m. in the junior high building. Enter at the end door from either Ardmore or Moody. New members, learners, knitters, crocheters, and those who would like to learn the secret of making the plastic mats are most welcome to join us on October 25. See you then.

Baby Bottle Project

Our parish is participating in the Baby Bottle Project. The donations raised from this project go directly to The Women’s Center of Chicago to help women in a crisis pregnancy. They provide financial, material, and spiritual assistance free of charge to women choosing life for their babies.

Please take a baby bottle home with you, put your spare change in the baby bottle and bring it back next weekend. Make checks payable to The Women’s Center. You can also go directly to their website at: GoTWC.org or call 773-794-1313 to donate.

Please give whatever you can to help us help those women and young girls to choose life for their babies and please pray for an end to abortion in our country.

Thank you!

Get to Know the Members of the Parish Council Anthony (Tony) Lupinski

I was born and raised on the south side of Chicago, making me a die-hard Sox fan. I was a member of Our Lady Gate of Heaven Parish where I attended Mass and grade school, and then graduated from Mt. Carmel High School.

I met my wife Carol in 1970 and we were married in 1973. We have two children and eight grandchildren and now reside on the northwest side of Chicago, and yes, I am still a Sox fan. We attended St. Cornelius where both of our children attended school and seven of our eight grandchildren were baptized. The last one was baptized here at St. Elizabeth.

Both Carol and I have been active in parish life and have served in several ministries, and intend on continuing in those ministries in our new home here at St. Elizabeth of the Trinity. I am currently a Eucharistic Minister, Lector, Minister of Care, and a new member of the St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish Council. I have already made some new friends here at St. Elizabeth and look forward to making many more.

May God Bless Us All.

LIFE WITH CHRIST IS A WONDERFUL ADVENTURE! - POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

Origins of the Holy Rosary

One of the first prayers most of us remember saying is the Hail Mary. As we grew older, perhaps we would say a decade of Hail Marys with our families each night and then the entire Rosary. Where did this beautiful prayer come from, why is it called the Rosary and why do Catholics say it?

The word rosary comes from the Latin word rosaria meaning crown of roses or garden of roses. While using beads while praying has its roots in early Christianity, the Blessed Mother appeared to St. Dominic in 1214 and presented him with the prayers to be said and the beads. Because of his great devotion to Our Lady, St. Dominic told all those he met about the Holy Rosary and taught them to pray it, especially with others.

Let's follow the example of St. Dominic and during this month of the Holy Rosary pray the Rosary with our family and friends.

"IF FAMILIES GIVE OUR LADY FIFTEEN MINUTES A DAY BY RECITING THE ROSARY, I ASSURE THEM THAT THEIR HOMES WILL BECOME, BY GOD'S GRACE, PEACEFUL PLACES."

Recently the third graders worked with their sixth grade Faith Partners to make cards for the homeless. They also enjoyed throwing the football around with Fr. Mike at recess. Finally, they brainstormed what was completed throughout the week and then shared that in a letter to their parents in their Third Grade News journals. They especially like it when Mom and Dad write back to them or give them a hug!

THE MEANING OF THE EUCHARIST

(This is Cardinal Cupich's column from the Chicago Catholic of September 17, 2021)

You may recall that a couple of years ago we received a new translation of the Mass. A major change that needed some explanation was the text prayed at the time of the consecration of the chalice.

Instead of saying, "take and drink the cup of my blood ... which will be poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins," the presider now says, "which will be poured out for you and for many." People rightly asked: Does this mean that Jesus' sacrifice doesn't save everyone?

The reason for the change is that many scholars came to think that these are the words of Isaiah's suffering servant, which Jesus makes his own at the Last Supper. In doing so, he is saying that he saves the world by making himself vulnerable, by suffering.

So the issue is not who is being saved, but who is doing the saving. In using those words, Jesus wants us to know how he is bringing about salvation, as the suffering servant.

This past week at Mass we heard the passage from Mark's Gospel in which Jesus makes clear in his dialogue with Peter that as the Messiah he is not a superhero who brings about a decisive victory by an act of human power over those who would harm us. Rather, he is the Messiah who saves us by making himself vulnerable so that God can save us by divine power: "The Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and rise after three days."

That has enormous consequences for us simply because it means that our suffering or risk-taking on behalf of others, the moments in which we allow ourselves to become vulnerable to help, save, love, forgive others has so much value that we join with Jesus in his saving mission.

Those moments of risk-taking and even suffering have meaning because they contribute to God's saving work. Jesus tells us in that same Gospel: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the Gospel will save it."

The message is clear: while we do not invite suffering, we should not be afraid of it when it comes, thinking it is meaningless.

Every day we see people who allow themselves to be vulnerable to save others. People who live authentic lives, who show us true heroism and who embrace a dignity of allowing themselves to be poured out for others.

I think of health care workers who are saving the lives of others, even though it means risking being infected; I think of first responders who enter situations every day that are not safe and yet do so to keep others safe; I think of parents and spouses who pour out their lives for their families at great cost, and I think of the times in our lives when we take the risk of forgiving someone who has hurt us, even if it means leaving us exposed to being hurt again.

This is the very meaning of the Eucharist we celebrate. For when we come forward to receive Communion and say amen, what we are really doing is saying yes, I am willing to be broken like the consecrated bread and poured out like the cup because I know that God will take my offering as he took the offering of Jesus on the cross. In my suffering God will bring about the salvation of the world and at the same time raise me up to new life, yes in eternity but even now as we grow in understanding about the meaning of our lives.

I would invite you to keep this in mind as you hear the words of consecration at Mass, "This is the chalice of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins." Remember that Jesus says those words to tell us he is saving us as the suffering servant of Isaiah, not a hero with superhuman power. And then pay attention to what is said next: "Do this in memory of me."

These words are nothing less than an invitation for each of us to renew ourselves as a disciple of Jesus who takes up our cross and joins him in bringing about the salvation of the world.
