SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." - Jn 20:27

FROM THE PASTOR...

April 24, 2022

The Lord is risen!! I hope you had a grace-filled Holy Week and Easter. We got to walk with Christ through the Paschal Mystery of our redemption during the beautiful Triduum Liturgies when we also received a new member into the Church, Jordan CeCe, who was baptized, confirmed, and received his first Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. Now we celebrate the joy of Christ's resurrection for fifty days.

On a retreat recently, a priest shared a story how he and his parish youth group visited Rome and somehow managed to get a private audience with St. John Paul II! The priest remembers vague banter and joking with the Holy Father, but only these final words really from the pope: "Jesus' Easter gift to us was the sacrament of confession". Jesus Christ is so tender in today's Gospel, especially when He could have legitimately rebuked the disciples.

"Peace be with you". These are the first words that Jesus spoke to the disciples when He saw them, He didn't condemn, mock or shame them for their cowardice, overconfidence, and fears. The last time He spoke to them was on the night of Holy Thursday at the Last Supper and in His agony in the garden. Judas betrayed Him, Peter denied Him and all of them scattered and left Jesus alone, except for John. The gospel for today goes on to recount that they were fearfully hiding behind closed doors and were likely ashamed and embarrassed, too. In the face of all this the risen Lord came to them and said "peace be with you."

After showing them His wounds, He also breathed the Holy Spirit onto them and gave them the power to forgive sins. Jesus forgave them with great mercy and gave them the power to forgive sins in His name through the sacrament of Reconciliation. Don't we and our world need the Lord's mercy and forgiveness right now?

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday and there is an image that Jesus gave to St. Faustina for the good of the whole Church and world. The image is a good representation of what our Gospel for today describes. The image of Divine Mercy shows the risen Jesus. The wounds on His hands and feet are visible. His right hand is outstretched as if offering both welcome and blessings and his left hand is pointing to His heart. From His heart two rays of light are coming out, red and white, that remind us of the blood and water that flowed from Jesus' side after He was pierced by the lance. The rays signify the grace that comes to us through the sacraments, from the very heart of Christ.

There are consoling words at the bottom of the image; "Jesus, I trust in you." These are the words and the loving look of the Lord that we must try to remember when the dark moments of our past flash before our eyes. If you haven't been to confession in a while, please reach out to one of the priests to tell your story and get the weights off your chest.

Here is what Jesus told St. Faustina about how we should approach the sacrament of confession with great trust and confidence in Him:

"When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of Mercy."

Hopefully you can also join us for the sung Divine Mercy chaplet at 3:00 p.m. today with a meditation as well.

The Lord is risen and love us!

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. Mike

GOSPEL MEDITATION -

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!"

TOTUS TUUS 2022 Information and Registration Form

Summer Youth Camps

June 26 – July 1, 2022

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity,
Chicago

WHAT IS TOTUS TUUS?

Totus Tuus is a week-long, summer youth retreat for young people in first through 12th grade. Participants will grow in their faith through skits, games, songs, the celebration of the sacraments, and engaging, interactive teaching.

Hosted at 30 parishes, a Totus Tuus team of four college students and seminarians will inspire our young people with their energy and enthusiasm for the Catholic faith. They bring to our parish a zeal for the proclamation of the Gospel and a missionary spirit. Their joy is contagious and will remind us that Jesus "came that we might have life and have it more abundantly" (Jn. 10:10).

The Totus Tuus program is built upon five pillars: love for the Eucharist, Marian devotion, authentic catechesis, Christian vocations, and fun! Our hope is to deepen the relationship our young people have with the Lord Jesus, while showing them how exciting a lifetime adventure with the Lord can be.

A Totus Tuus promise: If you can convince your kids to come the first day, we promise you they'll want to come back the next day!

TOTALLY YOURS

Totus Tuus is a Latin phrase meaning "Totally Yours." It was the motto of the late, great Pope St. John Paul II. Taken originally from St. Louis de Montfort's classic book, True Devotion to Mary, it signifies our desire to give ourselves entirely to Jesus Christ through the hands of our Blessed Mother Mary. It also expresses our effort to give all that we have to every young person we encounter.

Totus Tuus seeks to inspire in young people a true longing for holiness, a deep desire for daily conversion, and an openness to their vocation by challenging them to give themselves entirely to Jesus Christ through Mary and by continually strengthening their lives of prayer in imitation of her.

Totus Tuus hosts two programs during the week that will be here at St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish.

*"It seems to me that I have found my heaven on earth,
because my heaven is You,
my God,
and You are in my soul.
You in me,
and I in You – may this be my motto."
