JUNE 26, 2022

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

- Lk 9:61-62

Virtually everything is complete with the new parking lot, except for a few custom sized fence pieces...praise God! The trees and bushes look nice and will look even better in a few years as they mature. I will bless the parking lot on June 26th at 5:00 p.m. as part of the Totus Tuus kickoff with its missionaries. While there is no specific patron saint of parking lots, Mother Cabrini is often invoked in the aid of finding a parking spot. Here's a prayer that may come in handy when you're in need of a quick parking space, not that anyone will be running late to Mass; "Holy Souls, Holy Saints, help me find an empty space."

Hopefully you can say a farewell to Fr. Chris Landfried since this is his last week. We'll have Pot Belly sandwiches and snacks after the 1:00 p.m. Mass in the Auditorium today. Our new Associate Pastor, Fr. Leo Sepulveda has already started to move in and will start officially on Friday, July 1st. We're blessed to have him here. All the priests will have the chance this coming week to pray and visit together at the triennial priest convocation. Please say a prayer for the priests and bishops of the Archdiocese that we might work together and grow in holiness and fidelity to all that Christ teaches.

In today's Gospel we heard different sets of challenging words from Jesus about the costs of discipleship. The Gospel says: "As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, I will follow you wherever you go." This is a very bold statement; we know that when the disciples said things like this that they didn't really know what they were saying yet. The Lord told this bold "someone" an important truth about discipleship, He said; "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest His head."

This can be very hard to accept because we often want security in the here and now. I remember when my parents sold the family home. The first day I found out they were selling I was upset and was trying to talk them out of it. Especially as a priest who will probably never own property or my own "home" and must move from parish to parish, it was always nice to know I could go back to the home I had always known. My being upset only lasted a day and I've come to see that my family is what makes the home, even as it decreases in size due to death. I came to accept the painful truth that here, we have no lasting city, we seek a final homeland that is yet to come. This is true of parish homes, as well they can die, but like our families, they were given to us by God to help us get to our eternal home.

We also heard, "I will follow you Lord but first let me say farewell to my family at home." The person wants something to come "first" before following Jesus. He is hesitating in his commitment to follow Christ and the Lord responds by saying: "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." Perhaps a more modern example of this would be driving instead of plowing. If you're going to drive a car you need to look where you're going. Or if you keep looking in the rearview mirror you might get into an accident and certainly won't arrive at your destination. A person who texts, does makeup, or drinks and drives is not fit to be on the road.

These exchanges with Jesus and at least His partially committed followers show us that even good things like a house and home, and family obligations are good but need to be subordinated to our following of Christ. If we're looking to do God's will we'll find a way to do it, if we're looking for excuses, we'll find those too. Or as my father used to say: "If it's important enough to you, it'll get done."

Is there some attachment, relationship, or behavior in our lives that's not fit for the kingdom of God?

God bless,

Fr. Mike

"No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

In today's Gospel we see how Jesus, on His way to Jerusalem, sent "a messenger on ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as He sends us out to bring His love to others.

In June you were the "messenger of God" in bringing hope to the poor. Your gifts enabled the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to assist families in need by providing food and helping with utilities and rent.

Weekday Masses June 28 – 30, 2022

Priests serving in the Archdiocese of Chicago will gather for their triennial convocation from June 27 through June 30. This gathering is an important and necessary time of spiritual renewal for the priests, so that they can better serve the People of God.

The priests have been asked to clear their schedules, so that they can fully participate in this experience. Consequently, during those four days, there might not be weekday Masses celebrated in some parishes. However, there will be prayer services to be determined by each parish. In cases of emergency, parishioners can contact parish staff who will make whatever referral is appropriate.

The people of the Archdiocese can support their priests in several ways. Their patient understanding of scheduling changes is very important. Even more important is the prayerful support they extend to priests who have prayed for them and with them. Please use the prayer found at the end of this announcement as a personal prayer or a family prayer.

As the priests gather for their convocation know that they bring you and your families in their hearts to this important time of prayer and reflection.

LORD JESUS CHRIST, eternal High Priest, you offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave your priestly people a share in your redeeming sacrifice.
 Hear our prayer for all the priests of this Archdiocese of Chicago, especially as they gather in convocation.
 Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to you,
 the divine Master, the Good Shepherd.
 May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience.
 Let them be shepherds according to your own Heart, single-minded in service to you and to the Church and shining examples of a holy, simple and joyful life.
 Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
 draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
 AMEN

*"It seems to me that I have found my heaven on earth,
because my heaven is You,
my God,
and You are in my soul.
You in me,
and I in You – may this be my motto."
St. Elizabeth of the Trinity*
