

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

AUGUST 7, 2022

19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

- Lk 12:39-40

The school year is fast approaching and that also means that some fun events are as well. Come join us for the Holy Name Golf outing this year (registration info is in the bulletin) on Saturday, September 17th at the Old Orchard Country Club in Mt. Prospect. It's a fun event every year with a nice meal and social afterward in the Auditorium. I'm no good but love to try. I'll even give you a blessing beforehand to prevent injuries and help you do your best...St. Andrew, pray for us.

Also, the following weekend, Saturday, September 24th is the parish social. Our Mass that day is at 4:00 p.m. followed by a short procession to the inner parking lot for our annual social. There will be a DJ, many different food trucks, treats in the Auditorium, and a ton of fun activities for kids and adults. The planning committee is looking to block Moody off at Ardmore and have inflatable obstacle and jump houses rented for the kids. The bean bags will be even more organized this year with a tournament and prize of a new set of bean bag boards with the St. Elizabeth logo and new mascot. I think they're planning for a pizza truck, North Branch chicken, hot dogs, ice cream and more. Be sure to save the date...more to follow.

“Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.”

The Lord often has to tell us not to be afraid because we often are, including in our relationship with Him, like Adam and Eve who hid after their sin. How often we like to hear that we are loved, if it is said sincerely and freely. We did not earn our creation, our families, or natural talents and abilities we have. We have not earned the fact that we have a savior. God the Father has not abandoned us to sin and death and so Jesus tells us:

“Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.”

We are all tempted at times to think we earn God's love and grace and must work to keep it by our good behavior. Having said that we can look at the parables we heard today hopefully with open minds and hearts, and not terrifying fear. Both parables are about how servants should be prepared for the return of their master which includes being ready to open the door immediately when he comes and knocks, and in the second parable, it includes the servant managing the household and other servants well.

“Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.”

We need accountability to grow in virtue and holiness too. Hopefully, we have parents, friends, bishops, priests, and others to help keep us on the path of faith in Christ. But if no human being holds us accountable, the Lord will. We will have a perfectly honest and just judgment before the throne of the Son of God and so we should be prepared.

“If the Master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.”

We can't "plan" our conversion or growth in holiness to take place at some point in the future before we die because that may never happen, and such an attitude reveals that our heart is not where it should be. In this Gospel, Jesus manages to both console us incredibly and challenge us. And this is the Lord's promise to those who are prepared:

“Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.”

God bless you,

Fr. Mike

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” - Lk 12:39-40

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven!"

Thank You! Thank You!! Thank You!!!

Mid-July marked the end of another St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Altar Serving year. It also marked the end of Altar Serving commitments for some very special Servers. Most of our Servers begin their training in 5th grade. At that time they are asked to commit to Serve faithfully until 8th grade graduation, with the option to continue Altar Serving in High School, as their schedules allow. Now it's time to thank & celebrate the generosity of those who have lived up to their commitment.

We've been blessed with service at God's altar by two graduating high school seniors. They have been Serving Mass at our parish for seven years, an amazing display of God's grace active in their hearts & the power of the Holy Spirit helping them continue to Serve the rest of us at Mass. Congratulations & Thanks to:

Alex Goworowski & Katelyn Shewchuk

They've helped us grow spiritually and have been models of inspiration to younger Servers in particular. They will both be leaving for college soon. Alex & Katelyn, thanks so much. Know that you will be in our prayers as you begin the next phase of your lives.

In addition, 13 graduating 8th grade Servers fulfilled their commitment of three years Service at God's Altar. Congratulations & Thanks to:

*Mickie Allegretti
Gabbie Camarillo
*Nora Mescall
Rylie Stott
Kate Walsh

Christian Borromeo
*Kaitlyn Daly
Sarah Shewchuk
*Abby Thiel

*Izzy Bucks
Keegan Duggan
Claire Stieve
Chloe Thiel

Thanks to you all for your prayerful commitment. Special thanks go to those with * in front of their names. They have generously agreed to continue their Altar Serving commitment into their high school years.

We're blessed to have a fine Server group & blessed to have their encouraging parents, who have been their "1st teachers in the way of faith," a mission these parents committed to on the day of their children's Baptism.

- Fr. Dan McCarthy & Deacon John Rottman

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS

We Love because He first loved us. (1 John 4:19)

Jesus told us “Whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day, we have the opportunity to be the face of Jesus to others. Please consider making a gift from your individual retirement plan (IRA) that benefits you and our parish. A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free.

There are three main benefits of giving with a QCD:

- (1) If you are 72 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
- (2) The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.
- (3) Your gift will be immediately used, allowing you to see the impact of your gift now.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish contact: Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org.

A little golf humor...

A Round of Golf

Three men went out to play a round of golf: Moses, Jesus, and an old man. Moses tee'd off first, and the ball landed in the water. He parted the water and hit the ball in for a birdie.

Jesus went next, and the ball landed in the water. He walked on the water and hit the ball in for a birdie.

Lastly the old man tee'd off, but before the ball could hit the water, a fish jumped out and caught the ball in its mouth. Then an eagle swooped down and caught the fish. Lightning struck near the eagle, frightening it, causing it to drop the fish. When the fish hit the ground, it dropped the ball in for a perfect hole in one.

Jesus and Moses turn to the old man, and Jesus said, "Dad, if you don't quit playing like that, we're not going to bring you anymore."

Curious Words

This is from the Renew My Church webpage of the Archdiocese of Chicago

What is in a word? Sometimes the language we use needs to be translated to be understood. And sometimes we need to find a new language or different words to express our deepest meaning.

Every organization, group and even family has its own language and its own shared memories — words, acronyms, stories flow easily among people with a common grounding and understanding. When there is someone new to the family or to the organization, we explain what we mean or share our stories so new members can be a part of the experience and feel a sense of belonging.

The same is true with the words we use in the Catholic Tradition. To follow are some “curious words” to which we offer new language to help translate their meaning.

Archdiocese

The diocese of an Archbishop; typically has a larger population than a diocese.

Diocese

A geographic territory where a bishop is responsible for the people in that area. The world is divided into territories, and every area of the world has a bishop assigned to its care.

Disciple

A person who actively follows Jesus.

Encounter

An experience of meeting the living Christ through an event, a person, a prayer or another circumstance. Through this experience, a person comes to know that Christ is actively present in his or her life. God is no longer abstract, but instead a real person in one’s life.

Evangelization

Literally, to share the Good News of Jesus — who He was, what He did for us, and who He is in our lives today. We share our faith in Christ through our words by telling His story and by the way in which we live our lives. When someone encounters Christ through us, through our kindness, our compassion, our patience, our understanding, and our generosity, we have been a part of sharing the Good News of who Christ is in our world.

Kerygma

An ancient Greek word that meant “preaching.” In today’s Catholic Church, this word refers to the basic teaching of Christianity: that we are saved through Jesus Christ, that He is the son of God, that He lived to show us how to live, that He suffered and died for us, and that He rose again so that we can have eternal life.

Mission

The mission of the Church is to share the Good News that through Jesus Christ, we are saved from our sins, and we can have eternal life with God.

Missionary Disciple

A person who actively follows Jesus and takes Jesus into the world in which he or she lives.

New Evangelization

When we think of evangelizing, we first think of going out and sharing the story of Jesus with those who have never heard of Him. In fact, the New Evangelization is a call for all Catholics to be open to an encounter with Christ, and to allow ourselves to be evangelized for the first time or once again so we can go forth and share the Good News of who Jesus is to others. We are called to renew our relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. At the same time, we are also to go out and share who Christ is with those who have never met him.

Parish

Most people think the parish is the church where they worship. A parish, however, is a territorial division of the diocese — a geographical area. The people within the parish are cared for by the pastor assigned to this community by the Bishop or Archbishop. Because it is about geography, people of all parishes are made up of Catholics and non-Catholics. Within a parish, there is a Catholic Church that cares for the spiritual needs of the people in that area.

Vicariate

This is a division of a diocese or archdiocese. In the Archdiocese of Chicago, we have six vicariates. We also have six auxiliary bishops who help provide guidance and care of these vicariates. Each vicariate has approximately 50 – 65 parishes within it.
