PRAY FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

All Souls' Day

—NOVEMBER 2—

We will soon enter the beautiful month of November when in a special way we remember those who have died. We begin with All Saints Day and then the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed or All Souls Day on November 2nd. There are possibly billions of people in heaven that were never officially canonized by the Church and probably equally as many angels whose eternal glory is known to God alone. We honor them on this day and as part of the Communion of Saints. We ask them to intercede on our behalf as we strive to go marching in with them.

All Soul's Day is a time to remember and pray for our deceased loved ones. We are very blessed as Catholics to have a knowledge of purgatory. This time of purification is a mercy that we should be very grateful for because we detach from our sins, learn to forgive others and ourselves for wasted opportunities, and ultimately, we come to see that God is worthy of our love beyond anything that He has made. The last spiritual work of mercy we can offer is to pray for the dead, so have a Mass offered for your loved one, it is the greatest prayer of the Church, Christ's sacrifice for the remission of sins.

Ultimately, this life is the time for us to be detached from selfishness and to grow in holiness which is clearly on display in today's Gospel. The Gospel today says that Jesus had intended to pass through Jericho, where Zacchaeus lived. The Lord didn't directly seek Zacchaeus at first which seems contrary to His own words at the end of the Gospel when Christ says of Himself: "The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." The Lord doesn't overwhelm our freedom when He seeks us. Moved by God's grace, Zacchaeus looked for the Lord. Zacchaeus had to do his part. If he hadn't climbed the tree to try and see Jesus, the encounter seemingly would not have happened and then salvation wouldn't have come to Zacchaeus's house.

Jesus both seeks us and wants us to find Him; "When you look for me, you will find me. yes, when you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me, says the Lord" (Jer. 29:13). Jesus then invited Himself to stay at Zacchaeus' house, a rather personal thing that aroused the whisperings of the crowd, since Zacchaeus was such a well-known public sinner, as a chief tax collector, and was very rich. Being found by the Lord moved Zacchaeus to make restitution for his greed. Zacchaeus didn't just say he was sorry for all the people he overtaxed but showed real contrition by giving half of his money to the poor and repaying four times the amount he extorted from people.

Real contrition for our sins will be manifest in good works like almsgiving, acts of kindness, or prayer. It's never too late to try to improve relationships in our lives. It's always possible to be reconciled to the Lord and He will help us find good ways to mend our relationships with others. Like Zacchaeus we can also ignore the voices that tell us we are unworthy of the Lord's love. Jesus came for each one of us to bring salvation to our house!

"You have mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook people's sins that they may repent. For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made" (Wis. 11:23).

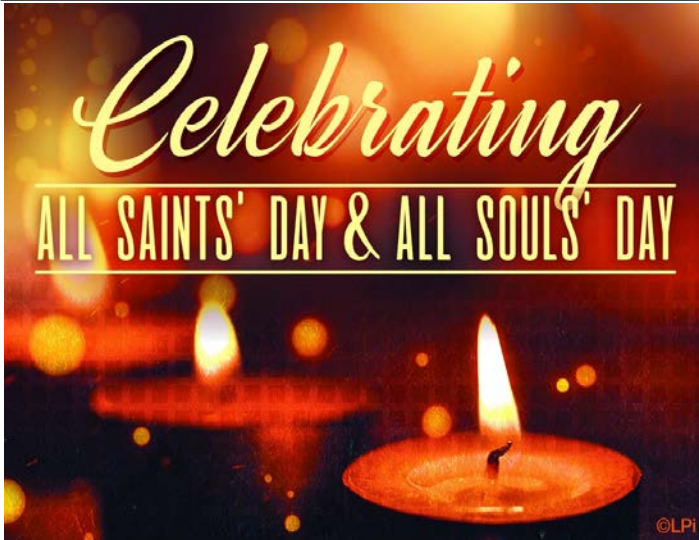

God bless!

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone, and frightened.

Welcome the Stranger Your support honors Jesus' call

Asylum seekers — men, women and children — are arriving in Chicago. Will you welcome the stranger? We are the body of Christ alive in this world. The stranger is hungry and thirsty — Christ is presenting himself to us in their need. We are called to respond with faith and love.

Thousands of people are fleeing violence, political oppression, and overwhelming poverty in Central and South American countries. Since early September, parishes, priests, religious sisters and brothers, church ministries, and Catholic Charities have shown an outpouring of concern for these travelers.

These brothers and sisters in need have revealed to us the fragility, strength, and sacredness of our shared humanity. In turn, they are experiencing the love of Christ through the compassion of volunteers and employees.

Over 3,000 asylum seekers arrived in Chicago by mid-October, and a coordinated Catholic response is underway so we can maximize our collective impact. We are providing pastoral care and considering options such as transitional shelter and parish-family sponsorship opportunities.

How You Can Help

Make a financial donation at Mass on November 5th & 6th. A second collection will directly support our collective response. Catholic Charities is serving as the central collection point for donations, which can also be made online at www.catholiccharities.net or by calling (312) 655-7525.

Join response efforts by contacting Tori Bawel at Catholic Charities (WelcomeTheStranger@catholiccharities.net)

Pray for our brother and sister asylum seekers arriving in Chicago. Pray for these mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, that they are welcomed and embraced with Jesus' compassion — and pray that those serving them are sustained by God's grace.

We will keep you informed, and welcome your questions, support, and prayer.

ST. ADALBERT CEMETERY IS CELEBRATING ITS 150TH ANNIVERSARY

St. Adalbert Cemetery invites you to join them on Wednesday, November 2 at 6800 North Milwaukee Avenue in Niles for an Open House at 12:30 p.m.. Light refreshments will be served.

An All Soul's Day Mass will be celebrated at 2:00 p.m..

The Respect Life Committee-Baby Bottle Project

There is still time to drop off your baby bottle filled with coins or currency to help support the important work of the Women's Centers of Chicago.

You may return your bottles to Mass next weekend or drop them off at the rectory during the week. Make checks payable to the Women's Centers of Chicago.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any “god.” When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God’s creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, “If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?” The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. “God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?” God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God’s unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don’t repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God’s divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God.

The beginnings of salvation’s blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation

We are two months into the school year, and fifth grade has been quite busy! It has been working in cooperative groups and has been utilizing the classroom cart of Chromebooks. Students reflected early in the year on what it means to “give one’s heart to Jesus” through various Scripture passages as well as musical selections. Students also participated in many activities for the annual observance of the International Day of Peace on September 21. One task asked students to create a “peace pledge” they could adopt as they contemplated ways in which they can foster peace within their own community.

Thanks to the new Caring School Community Curriculum, the students created their own classroom norms. These student written norms have helped to create an environment where the students feel a sense of responsibility to themselves and to others within our classroom. Another unique lesson of the Caring School Community Curriculum resulted in the creation of “Esteem Boosters.” Students were asked to write three affirmations to help boost their self-esteem when they begin to doubt themselves or when faced with a challenging task.

With Halloween just one week away, the students used their artistic skills to redecorate the classroom door with some quite unique jack-o’-lanterns.

Our Class Norms

1. We will allow others to read during independent work time.
2. We will include one another in all activities.
3. We will ask for permission before we take someone else's belongings.
4. We will respect one another's personal space.
5. We will be honest with each other.
6. We will support one another.
7. We will treat one another with kindness in every way possible, from our words to our actions.
