

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

AUGUST 27, 2023

21st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven.
Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:19

It has become more common now in Catholic circles to talk about having a personal relationship with Jesus, which is a true statement and not just for Evangelicals or other Protestants. We all are unique just like the early disciples and have our own relationship with Christ, as I once heard it said, God's grace to us is as personal as our own spit. Jesus looks at us and speaks to us by name.

"Who do you say that I am?"

The Lord asked this of the disciples after first asking the safer question of what others thought about Him. It's safe for us to talk about surveys, polls, sociological analysis of the people around us, what we think other people think. But the Lord doesn't really need us to tell Him what others are about, He wants to hear what we are about, and what we think. The Lord wants to know where our heart is.

"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

An interesting fact from faithful Catholics in the recent DMI survey is that even when we believe the faith in our minds we may have a hard time believing that others can believe in Jesus Christ or something He taught. I think of it as the "You can't handle the truth" mindset that Jack Nicholson had in A Few Good Men.

The recent DMI survey showed that of the 225 respondents almost all believe that Jesus is really present in the Eucharist, but 90% have never mentioned the thought of priesthood or religious life as a possible vocation to another person and many reported feeling uncomfortable about sharing the faith with others. I witness this phenomenon in other ways where people I know to be believing Catholics appreciate a certain retreat, faith series, talk, or the beauty or goodness of the faith but then say, "But I'm worried what others might think about it."

Part of loving others is sharing what we most treasure with them. People want us to be our authentic self and not so worried about what others might think. When we have deep love and passion for something, we want to share it with those that we love. The Lord wants to strengthen each one of us in His love and grace so that we will be more confident in sharing Him with others.

In this time of Eucharistic revival and evangelization, we are trying to offer more opportunities to help people connect with Christ and one another. Just as a reminder, the church is open for prayer every day until 5:00 p.m. and there is Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesdays from 11:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. with formal exposition and ending with Benediction.

Another recommendation from the U.S. bishops about strengthening faith in Christ is to offer the sacrament of reconciliation more. We will now be offering confessions on Sunday at noon in English or bilingually when Fr. Leo is the confessor. Hopefully this added time on a Sunday will help accommodate the challenging business of people's lives. Reconciliation is a sacrament of healing that Jesus gave us, He never gives up on us, be not afraid.

Jesus told Peter that it was a gift of God's grace that Peter could profess His identity. While it's true that we can't give what we don't have, the Lord loves us and wants to strengthen us where we might feel awkward in giving witness to Him. Let's be confident that if the gospel and everything Jesus taught us is good for us, it will be good for others as well!

God bless,

Fr. Mike

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." - Mt 16:15-16

Like Peter in today's Gospel, we can find that when we open our eyes to see, our ears to hear and our hearts to experience Jesus' presence in our daily lives, God reveals Himself to us.

“Teach them their catechism...
Go and fear nothing ... I will help you”

By the time this goes to print, I will have returned from my pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help, which is transitioning to its new title, Our Lady of Champion.

Champion, Wisconsin is the site of the first and only approved Marian apparition site in the United States. Our Blessed Mother appeared to Adele Brise, a 28-year-old illiterate Belgian who, from a young age, had aspired to become a religious teaching sister.

When Our Lady appeared to Adele, she was clothed in dazzling white, with a yellow sash around her waist, and a crown of stars around her head. On her third visit, Mary instructed Adele to “Gather the children in this wild country and teach them what they should know for salvation.” Adele responded: “But how shall I teach them who know so little myself?”

“Teach them their catechism, how to sign themselves with the sign of the Cross, and how to approach the sacraments; that is what I wish you to do. Go and fear nothing, I will help you.”

Not only did this illiterate young woman succeed in establishing a chapel, school, and convent in the wilderness, she led the community in fervent prayer, resulting in a miraculous survival from The Great Peshtigo Fire of 1871 that claimed between 1,200 and 2,400 lives.

While at the Shrine’s Apparition Chapel, I will be praying to Our Lady of Champion, that she may continue to bless our Religious Education families and faith formation leaders, and that she may send us individuals who are feeling called to join our mission.

We are still looking for catechists, classroom aides, and substitute catechists.

Is the Holy Spirit calling you to help teach our children “what they should know for salvation?”

Do not be afraid to answer the call - no prior experience is needed.

“Fear nothing ... I will help you.”

~ Mary

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass
Do This in Remembrance of Me,
Part 4: Opening Hymn
By FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

Now that we have reminded ourselves of our Baptism (holy water), given reverence to Jesus present in the tabernacle (genuflection), and quietly said our prayers of preparation, we are ready to stand for the Introductory Rites. For most parishes, these rites will begin with a hymn or the Entrance Antiphon.

There is no doubt that everyone has their “special way” of singing during the Mass. Some really belt out the song, whether they have a pleasant voice or not. Some lightly mumble the words so that even if they had a microphone, you could barely hear them. Some seemingly know the songs so well that they don’t even open the books! Some must have such a deep interior connection with God that they don’t even sing out loud—just in their hearts!

Let us pray

Why do we sing? Looking back in our history and to the Jewish roots of our liturgy, we see that music and singing is an important part of our prayer together. Singing is one of the most fitting praises for God, since it involves the body and soul even more than speaking. (Singing is a lot more work than speaking!) When we sing, we use our whole beings to praise God. The General Instruction for the Roman Missal explains the importance of singing:

“The Christian faithful who come together as one in expectation of the Lord’s coming are instructed by the Apostle Paul to sing together Psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles (cf. Col 3:16). Singing is the sign of the heart’s joy (cf. Acts 2:46). Thus St. Augustine says rightly, ‘Singing is for one who loves,’ and there is also the ancient proverb: ‘Whoever sings well prays twice over’” (GIRM, no. 39).

Given these admonitions, “Great importance should therefore be attached to the use of singing in the celebration of the Mass” (GIRM, no. 40).

At the beginning of Mass, the most common options for the “Entrance Chant” are an Entrance Hymn or Entrance Antiphon. The purpose of singing at this time is “to open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical time or festivity, and accompany the procession of the Priest and ministers” (GIRM, no. 47). The Entrance Hymn or Antiphon helps us to “get into” what we are about to do; it helps us set aside everything else that is going on in our lives and helps us to prepare our hearts to praise God and participate in the Mass. This singing especially reminds us that we are a community, because it is the first act that we all do together at the Mass.

I often hear individuals say, “I feel self-conscious because my voice is terrible!” To quote our Lord, Pope St. John Paul II, and many others: “Be not afraid!” God gave you the voice you have, and in singing praise to him, you are offering the gifts (or lack thereof) that he gave you. So, pick up that hymnal and join the song!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Pope Francis, like Pope Benedict XVI before him, has eloquently drawn the connection between the celebration of the Eucharist and care for the environment. All creation gives glory to God, and journeys toward divinization, toward union with the Creator.
