PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me." - Jn 15:26

FROM FR. MIKE

May 19, 2024

This weekend is Pentecost, fifty days after Easter, when the disciples were promised that they would receive “power from in high.” Without the Holy Spirit, the disciples would never have become Apostles - those who are sent - they would just have remained students or followers and therefore, the Church would never have been built up. While today is the day that our parish has historically commissioned only the liturgical ministers we added all the ministries to the commissioning at Masses last year, and for good reason. The Church has a mission that should not be inward looking or self-referential.

The Catholic Church has been diminishing in the Western world for some time now, with some counter-trends of course, but overall, the numbers are in decline. Very few families encourage their children to religious or priestly vocations and sacramental weddings have been largely replaced by secular, destination weddings. Baptisms and funerals still occur in more significant quantities, and we do our best to use those for evangelization purposes, to reconnect people to Jesus Christ and the basics of faith. But our own parish of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, a merger of three parishes, was mainly needed because of a decline in faith.

I am not being negative, but honest. I have hope because I know as well as you do of a powerful truth. This decline does not need to happen anymore, Jesus Christ, the Son of God is truly risen from the dead and the gifts of the Holy Spirit is still available to us. The Holy Spirit gives us power to witness to Christ and to prioritize Him in our daily living. God is not dead, He’s not even tired. “Surrender to God and He will do everything for you.”

The parish, as Pope Francis has been calling for, needs to be more outward focused and more missionary minded. While we do need lay people to help at Mass liturgically in roles as lectors, ushers, and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, the real task of the laity is to bring the Lord into the world. When Pope Francis was first elected pope, he said we shouldn’t laicize the clergy and clericalize the laity. The clergy here will try to do our best to offer the sacraments that Jesus gave us, prayerfully and generously, and we will try to encourage you in faith and with the Word of God. But the Lord calls you to be holy and virtuous in your homes, work, and to show Christ’s love to those around you.

Pentecost Sunday is a great time for us to consider what the parish is supposed to be doing, including at Mass. The parish is the place where you can come to get strengthened in faith, worship the Lord at Mass, receive His love and grace, and have some fellowship on the journey so that Jesus can be brought into the world...through you. The parish is not a park district, with people receiving the benefits of space and programming based on being taxpayers. Nor is the parish a business where parishioners are like customers paying for more excellent and entertaining services.

This is a time for us to reclaim the power of our baptism and not to live our faith in fear. St. John Paul II reminded us of our call to witness to the Lord: “To the whole Church is addressed Christ’s command: ‘Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation’ (Mk 16:15). The whole Church, therefore, is missionary and evangelizing; she lives constantly in a state of mission. To be Christians means to be missionaries, to be apostles. It is not enough to discover Christ - you must bring Him to others!”

God bless,

Fr. Mike

Today as we celebrate Pentecost, the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence and to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

This month, through your gifts, the St. Vincent de Paul Society was able bring the love of God to the poor by helping families and individuals by providing food and assistance with utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!

SPECIAL PENTECOST BLESSING

This weekend the Church celebrates Pentecost. Many people think of this day as the birthday of the Church. In commemoration of this special day, we will offer a special blessing/commissioning of all lay ministers here at St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Parish.

At all Masses, after the homily, anyone involved in any of the following ministries will be asked to stand: Altar Servers, Art & Environment, Catechists, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, Finance Council, Food Pantry, Gardeners, Holy Name Society, Lectors, Legion of Mary, Livestreaming, Ministers of Care, Music, One Parish One Prisoner Ministry, Parish Council, Prayer Shawl, Rescue Project, Respect Life, Sacramental Preparation, School Board, Spanish Prayer Group, SPRED, St. Vincent de Paul, Sunday Collection Counters, Ushers, and Women's Group.

As you can see, there are many and varied ways you can participate in the life of the parish by sharing your time and talent in one or more of these ministries.

At Pentecost, listen to the Holy Spirit and seriously reflect on how you are being called to serve the Church through this parish. Ask some of the people who stand at Mass why they do what they do. You are needed...you are being called. Will you answer the call?

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Are you called to serve those in need? Do you feel a deep compassion for the homebound members of our community? How about for those who are residents of long-term care facilities? If so, we invite you to consider joining our parish's Ministers of Care.

As Catholics, we are called to follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ, who showed great love and compassion for the sick and marginalized. By becoming a Minister of Care, you will have the opportunity to bring the love and presence of Christ to those who are unable to join us for Mass, either to their homes or to nursing homes.

What does it mean to be a Minister of Care? It means offering companionship, prayer, and the Blessed Sacrament to those who are unable to attend Mass due to illness, disability, or advanced age. It means being a comforting presence and a source of spiritual support for those who may feel isolated or alone.

No special qualifications are necessary – just a compassionate heart and a willingness to reach out to those in need. Training and support will be provided to help you fulfill this important ministry.

If you feel called to serve as a Minister of Care, please contact me via email at: tony.carol1973@comcast.net or by phone at 773 454-2169.

Together, let us extend the healing and comforting touch of Christ to our brothers and sisters who are homebound or in nursing homes.

God bless,
Tony Lupinski
Minister of Care Coordinator

Prayer for the Newly Ordained

Lord Jesus, you have chosen priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving.

We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising.

Through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted.

And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, once given to your disciples, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

(Fathers Timothy Berryhill, Martin Nyberg, Andrew Panzer, SJC, and Juan Vargas were ordained by Cardinal Cupich on May 18 to serve as priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago)

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass
Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 41,
The Prayer over the Offerings
by FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

Our next “stop” in this journey through the Mass is the Prayer over the Offerings. Similar to what we saw with the Collect at the beginning of Mass, the Prayer over the Offerings gives us a summary of our offering and points our minds and hearts to the coming Eucharistic Prayer. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, “Once the offerings have been placed on the altar and the accompanying rites completed, by means of the invitation to pray with the Priest and by means of The Prayer over the Offerings, the Preparation of the Gifts is concluded and preparation made for the Eucharistic Prayer. At Mass, a single Prayer over the Offerings is said, and it ends with the shorter conclusion, that is: Through Christ our Lord. If, however, the Son is mentioned at the end of this prayer, the conclusion is: Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. The people, joining in this petition, make the prayer their own by means of the acclamation Amen” (GIRM, 77).

Offering Prayers, Receiving Graces

What are we praying about at this point in the Mass? Generally speaking, if we look through these prayers, we find the following familiar words: prayers, gifts, offerings, sacrifices, and oblations. We also ask God to sanctify, accept, and transform these gifts. Fleshing out the content of these Prayers over the Offerings, Charles Belmonte writes, “we usually acknowledge our incapacity to offer to God gifts adequate to his goodness and power. We ask God to accept what we offer with sincerity. We ask some grace in connection with the mystery celebrated on that particular day, in return for the material gifts. We notice an ascending or upward-striving rhythm in the progress of the liturgical action. If we contrast this prayer with the Collect, we can perceive an increase in fervor and assurance. We know that our gifts to God will be returned to us multiplied a hundredfold” (Understanding the Mass, p. 116).

Hearing mention of sacrifice, we recall one of the great truths about the Mass: it truly is the one sacrifice of Christ. In the Mass, the perfect sacrifice of Christ on the Cross is re-presented to us. In the traditional understanding of a sacrifice, we need a priest, a victim/offering, and an altar. For Christ’s perfect sacrifice, Jesus is both the priest and victim/offering; that is, he offers himself in sacrifice on the altar of the cross. The Mass is our access to that sacrifice and its many fruits. How amazing: the sacrifice of Jesus is right there before us. No wonder the Mass is such a powerful prayer!

Uniting Our Offerings with Christ’s Sacrifice

Of course, we are not just spectators at the Mass; we don’t just sit back and watch what Jesus does. We have been invited to take part and to unite with Christ in offering our own sacrifices. As we have been reflecting on this part of the Mass, we are able to join our prayers and offerings to the perfect offering of Jesus. As Charles Belmonte says, “St. Paul exhorted the first Christians to offer every action to God. ‘Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God’ (1 Cor. 10:31), and never say or do anything except ‘in the name of the Lord Jesus’ (Col 3:17). The Second Vatican Council [in the Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium, 34] encourages ordinary Christians to make their daily offering united to the [E]ucharistic sacrifice: For all their works, prayers and apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, if patiently borne—all these become ‘spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ’ (1 Pet. 2:5). Together with the offering of the Lord’s body, they are most fittingly offered in the celebration of the Eucharist” (Understanding the Mass, p. 116–117). Belmonte goes on to suggest that we make offerings to God each day as an anticipation of joining in this Prayer over the Offerings. If you are up for it, I invite you to consider his challenge. Resolve to make offerings each day this coming week, and then bring those offerings to be spiritually joined to the sacrifice of the Mass on Sunday. Hopefully, you will experience deeper union with Jesus, especially the next time you are at the Mass!

*"It seems to me that I have found my heaven on earth,
because my heaven is You,
my God,
