

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

JUNE 23, 2024

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

I'm writing this bulletin a bit ahead of schedule, by the time you read this the priests here will all have returned from the Convocation for all the Archdiocesan and other religious order priests who serve in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Cardinal Cupich decided that it was important that the priests gather to pray and build fraternity as well, I understand there will be a nightly card game. I might visit. We will also have daily Mass, pray the Liturgy of the Hours, hear guest speakers, and enjoy meals together.

Priestly Convocations in the Archdiocese used to happen every three years but were interrupted by Covid with a four-year delay, now they will occur every two years. I will still be thinking and praying for all of you, including daily Mass for your needs and intentions and hope that you pray for Fr. McCarthy, Fr. Leo, and me. Pray for priests and our own renewal too. The priests of the Archdiocese each come from different eras, formation, and have different views not unlike the average lay Catholic. But certainly, we can all agree on the need for a deeper conversion to Christ, growth in holiness, and that Jesus Christ is calling us, not just clergy, to a renewed personal commitment to Him. Be assured of my prayers.

Reflection: Trying to understand another first, before making a judgment.

This weekend we heard the Gospel about Jesus calming the storm after the disciples were terrified and rebuked Jesus who was asleep. There was a communication breakdown, a misunderstanding, but it was only a one-way misunderstanding. Jesus knows that He is in charge, that He has power over the storm and everything else and that they are safe. The disciples presumably should know this too; “He asked them, “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?”

The disciples were trying to get Jesus to see their point of view “we are perishing” without first seeing His perspective. How many of the troubles and storms in our life occur because we make judgments before understanding other people's perspectives, human, and Divine?

Family members will fight over some issue because they are hurt about something and in the fight, things might be said that were not helpful. Each side feels somewhat justified especially because there were cruel things said or done by the other, and each person feels an apology is needed but that the other person should admit defeat first and apologize. Instead of demanding to be understood first, perhaps the Lord is calling us to listen to the other person's perspective, to appreciate their hurt, their hopes, their fears.

There is a famous saying that people “Don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.” So much of the division in our society (and families) seems to come from an inability to see the good will in people we disagree with. Human beings aren't demons, we all have some good ideas and motivations.

This is also true with God. We may disagree with what God is doing or allowing, like the disciples with Jesus “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?” The disciples thought the Lord wasn't aware of or capable of handling their problem. They wanted Jesus to listen to them and care about their concern. The Lord does listen to our concerns, but He would like us to see things from His perspective, after all, He is God.

The Prayer of St. Francis has a verse that would help us be better peacemakers, a sentiment much needed today:

“Divine Master, grant that I might not so much seek...to be understood as to understand.”

God bless you,

Fr. Mike

“Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?” - Mk 4:39-40

In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks the disciples: "Why are you lacking in faith?" In our life's journey, we also must learn to believe in God's presence and to trust in His care.

This month, through your gifts, the St. Vincent de Paul Society was able to continue to show God's love and care to others by assisting individuals and families in need by providing help for food, utilities, and rent, etc.

Summer is in full swing, but we're still thinking of all the great times we had throughout the year.

We packed in so much learning, and fun! We'll be throwing it back all summer long with memories from the 2023-2024 school year.

Seventh grade threw their kindergarten Faith Partners a pizza party to celebrate their graduation. Students love their Faith Partners and create a special bond throughout the year.

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass
Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 46,
Eucharistic Prayer Options
by FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

Having just joined the angels in singing the Holy, Holy, Holy, we next kneel down in adoration for the Eucharistic Prayer. Why do we kneel at this time? We kneel to prepare ourselves for the Lord Jesus to be really, truly, and substantially present on the altar. As Fr. Stefano Manelli relates, St. Louis IX, King of France, who was known to be regularly at Mass and would kneel on the floor, once said, “At Mass God offers Himself as a sacrifice, and when God sacrifices Himself, kings should kneel on the floor” (Jesus Our Eucharistic Love, p. 24). Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is really an extension of the adoration we have for Jesus on the altar after the Consecration and in the elevations of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Mass.

The Commonalities and Differences between Eucharistic Prayers

You may have noticed that there are several options for the Eucharistic Prayer, which begins after the Sanctus. Although each Eucharistic Prayer is unique and has particular emphases, each has the same main elements, including the epiclesis, institution narrative and Consecration, anamnesis, oblation, intercessions, and concluding doxology. We will cover each element in detail as we continue.

Looking through our current Roman Missal, we find ten Eucharistic Prayers from which the priest can choose. The first four (The Roman Canon: Eucharistic Prayer I, along with Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV) are probably the most familiar, as they are often included in worship aids and other prayer books. The Missal also includes two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation and four Prayers for Masses for Various Needs. These options have the following titles: “The Church on the Path of Unity”; “God Guides His Church along the Way of Salvation”; “Jesus, the Way to the Father”; and “Jesus, Who Went About Doing Good.” These last four prayers come with suggestions for when they might be appropriate to use; for example, the prayer “Jesus, the Way to the Father” would be a good fit for a Mass “For the Evangelization of Peoples” or “For Persecuted Christians.” There are also three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with children (found in a separate book and prescribed only for Masses in which the majority of the participants are children).

Eucharistic Prayers I–IV

Sometimes people ask if I have a favorite Eucharistic Prayer. My honest answer is that each one is special in its own way. I really do like each of them! Eucharistic Prayer I includes many names of saints, which reminds me that we are supported by the witness and prayers of those who have gone before us (more on these saints in the near future). It also has several unique prayers for special days like Christmas and Easter. Eucharistic Prayer I is also called the Roman Canon, indicating its origin and centuries-long use in the Latin Rite of the Roman Catholic Church. Eucharistic Prayer II has some of the oldest known prayers in the Mass, which go back to the 200s A.D. I am always strengthened by the thought that those early saints and martyrs were praying almost word-for-word the same words we use today; that is unity throughout time and place! Eucharistic Prayer III notes the Holy Spirit in particular and has a place for inserting the name of the saint of the day or patron saints. Eucharistic Prayer IV is really a tour of salvation history and reminds me of the Gospel of St. John with phrases like, “And you so loved the world, Father most holy, that in the fullness of time you sent your Only Begotten Son to be our Savior.”

Phrases from Other Eucharistic Prayers

Among the other Eucharistic Prayers, here are a few phrases that I really love to pray: “Help us to work together for the coming of your Kingdom, until the hour when we stand before you, Saints among the Saints in the halls of heaven” (Reconciliation I). “May he make your Church a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace among all people” (Reconciliation II). “Lord renew your Church (which is in N.) by the light of the Gospel” (Various Needs I). “And so, having called us to your table, Lord, confirm us in unity...” (Various Needs II). “You are indeed Holy and to be glorified, O God, who love the human race and who always walk with us on the journey of life” (Various Needs III). “Open our eyes to the needs of our brothers and sisters; inspire in us words and actions to comfort those who labor and are burdened” (Various Needs IV).

After taking a closer look, we see there really is a rich variety in the different prayers we can use at the altar in the Mass. Whichever of these Eucharistic Prayers is prayed, be assured that the same holy sacrifice of Christ takes place, glory and honor is given to God, and the very Body and Blood of Jesus becomes present on the altar in front of us!
