

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

JUNE 9, 2024

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.” - Mk 3:35

This weekend our First Reading reminds us of the effect of the Fall; the truth of Original Sin that G.K. Chesterton said: “Which is the only part of Christian theology which can really be proved” ... that can be “seen in the street.” We see the effects of the Fall all around us and at every age.

I remember when my nephew Max was a toddler and my sister-in-law had not yet child-proofed the lower shelves and tables in her living room. Max used to knock off books, pictures, and other knickknacks from the tables and shelves at his hobbit-sized level. My sister-in-law told him to stop doing it and to leave those things alone. So Max picked up a little toy figure he had of Dora the Explorer and then began knocking the items off the shelf, one at a time, using Dora. Each time Max toppled an item he would rebuke the toy saying: “No Dora, No.”

One observable effect of Original Sin, even in children, is the lack of taking personal responsibility for our own choices. Adam blamed Eve and then Eve blamed the serpent/Devil. While it’s true that we are all, to some degree, victims we also have knowledge and freedom, and we are meant to use those powers for good. God knows that this is a fallen world, but He calls us to take responsibility for our lives. Those looking for excuses will always find them. Those looking to serve the Lord will always find a way.

Another effect of the Fall is that we now distrust the One who loves us the most, God. Our first parents walked in harmony with God, innocent, holy, naked, and unashamed. They were not self-aware or bothered by anxiety, stress, or distrust. Jesus praised the childlike relationship with Him and said that we must become simple and humble again to enter the kingdom. Little ones have trust while being vulnerable, trust in their parent’s love, and their ability to provide and care for them.

We can regain trust in Him in our weaknesses, faults, and vulnerabilities. The Lord knows that we are dust, that we try and fail, or that our efforts are not, at first, something we may be proud of. Parents spend most of their lives trying to encourage their children, to help them not to be afraid to try. How often we are told by those who love us to not give up before we have even started. Loving parents do this by reminding their children that no matter what, they will always love them.

Parents experience at some point the deep pain of a child questioning their goodwill toward them. We can be like that towards God. Think how Jesus groaned in spirit when Martha and Mary questioned Him: “If you had been here, my brother would not have died...”. The disciples complained about the storm, people demanded more signs, the Israelites grumbled repeatedly against God: “Is the Lord in our midst or not.” How often the Lord was amazed at people’s lack of faith: “Why did you doubt?” and rewarded those who trusted Him without testing Him.

Like any good parent, God is aware that we can distrust His goodness and still care for us, and the Lord is patient and never tires of helping us begin again.

“Jesus, I surrender myself to you. Take care of everything.”

God bless,

Fr. Mike

Today Jesus looking around those seated in the circle said: "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Through your almsgiving you are indeed doing the will of God and your gift placed in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box indeed brings Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

Weekday Masses June 17 – 20, 2024

Priests serving in the Archdiocese of Chicago will gather for their biennial convocation from June 17 through June 20. This gathering is an important and necessary time of spiritual renewal for the priests, so that they can better serve the People of God.

The priests have been asked to clear their schedules, so that they can fully participate in this experience. Consequently, during those four days, there might not be weekday Masses celebrated in some parishes. However, there will be prayer services to be determined by each parish. In cases of emergency, parishioners can contact parish staff who will make whatever referral is appropriate.

The people of the Archdiocese can support their priests in several ways. Their patient understanding of scheduling changes is very important. Even more important is the prayerful support they extend to priests who have prayed for them and with them. Please use the prayer found at the end of this announcement as a personal prayer or a family prayer.

As the priests gather for their convocation know that they bring you and your families in their hearts to this important time of prayer and reflection.

LORD JESUS CHRIST,
eternal High Priest, you offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave your priestly people a share in your redeeming sacrifice.
Hear our prayer for all the priests of this Archdiocese of Chicago, especially as they gather in convocation.

Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to you,
the divine Master, the Good Shepherd.

May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience.
Let them be shepherds according to your own Heart,
single-minded in service to you and to the Church and shining examples of a holy, simple and joyful life.

Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care
to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

AMEN

Congrats to the Class of '24!

Last week, we took a closer look at the opening dialogue of the Preface, and especially how it invites us to give thanks to God. As we said earlier, the word Eucharist means “thanksgiving.” Charles Belmonte indicates that the preface is an appropriate beginning of the Eucharistic prayer, since it “is basically an act of thanksgiving in a literary form between prayer and hymn. It seeks to move the faithful to praise and joy” (Understanding the Mass, p. 128).

Thanksgiving for Every Day of the Year

For me as a priest, the Preface is one of my favorite parts of the Mass, especially when I take time to really pray through the phrases. The Preface is one of the variable parts of the Mass, where there are many options that can change from week to week. Our current Missal has about 50 regularly used Prefaces grouped together, including ones for Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, Sundays of Ordinary Time, Feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, Funerals, and some “Common” Prefaces that can be used on days where another specific Preface isn’t called for. In addition to these, there are many more Prefaces in the Missal, including some specially designed for certain Eucharistic Prayers and those that are used on specific celebrations such as Christ the King or the Most Holy Trinity. There are even some special Prefaces for civic holidays, such as Thanksgiving or the Fourth of July in the United States. Each of these Prefaces will highlight special truths of a particular celebration or season of the year.

Following the response of the people in the Preface dialogue, “It is right and just,” I enjoy how the priest begins praying the Preface with, “It is truly right and just.” We are encouraging each other in giving thanks. These words of the priest communicate, “Yes! Let us continue giving thanks—it is right and just!” I often will pray those words with emphasis, as we transition to the next part of the Preface that will highlight special truths for us.

Special Truths Proclaimed in the Preface

For example, Preface I of Advent says, “For he assumed at his first coming the lowliness of human flesh, and so fulfilled the design you formed long ago, and opened for us the way to eternal salvation, that, when he comes again in glory and majesty and all is at last made manifest, we who watch for that day may inherit the great promise in which now we dare to hope.”

As another example, in Preface I of the Most Holy Eucharist, we hear, “For he is the true and eternal Priest, who instituted the pattern of an everlasting sacrifice and was the first to offer himself as the saving Victim, commanding us to make this offering as his memorial. As we eat his flesh that was sacrificed for us, we are made strong, and, as we drink his Blood that was poured out for us, we are washed clean.”

Since they are so good, and since we are in the Eucharistic Revival, here are the key phrases from Preface II of the Most Holy Eucharist, “For at the Last Supper with his Apostles, establishing for the ages to come the saving memorial of the Cross, he offered himself to you as the unblemished Lamb, the acceptable gift of perfect praise. Nourishing your faithful by this sacred mystery, you make them holy, so that the human race, bounded by one world, may be enlightened by one faith and united by one bond of charity. And so, we approach the table of this wondrous Sacrament, so that, bathed in the sweetness of your grace, we may pass over to the heavenly realities here foreshadowed.”

No doubt, those are prayers packed with great truths! If we aren’t attentive to this part of the Mass, we could really miss out on some great highlights that help ready our hearts for the ultimate prayer of thanksgiving—the Holy Eucharist—the perfect sacrifice of Jesus offered to the Father. If you haven’t noticed the Preface in a while, I give you a challenge for the next time you are at Mass: see if you can notice any of the main themes of the Preface. It is a great summary of the celebration of the day, and a fitting preparation for the rest of the Eucharistic Prayer to come!
