

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

AUGUST 18, 2024

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me." - Jn 6:56-57

“Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding” (Wis. 9:6).

As I write this the Paris Summer Olympics have recently come to an end with the United States representing well on the world stage, leading in all medal categories. It is amazing to see the limits of human physical potential and the dedication, focus, and hard work needed to even be selected as a competitor for the games.

Sadly, good things with broad appeal often have alternate agendas too. I know I am late in commenting, but I was reminded about the blasphemous Last Summer inspired scene that began the Olympics. The perverse Last Supper scene was a bacchanalian orgy, that hardly raised the human mind and heart to heavenly things. The performance that followed was John Lennon’s “Imagine”, which sings about a world without religion, just to frame the organizers intentionality for us.

How does God want us to respond when Jesus Christ, the faith, and sacraments are ridiculed or profaned?

Firstly, we should not be surprised or “shocked” when those caught up in worldliness, unbelief, or sin mock Jesus or His followers. Jesus Christ repeatedly told us things like: “If the world hates you, know that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, the world would love its own” (Jn. 15:18). The Western world has largely lost its faith in Christ and what fills in that gap is nothing but evil influences, even diabolical. People influenced by the demonic hate Light, virtue, and childlike innocence. A serene and prayerful awareness of this fact will help us to respond to our times in a calm and virtuous manner: “Amidst a crooked and depraved generation, you will shine like the stars in the sky” (Phil. 2:15).

Secondly, we should be clear about why we are offended. We remind people to not blaspheme against God for their own sakes, not because our personal feelings are hurt. Some say that the truth can’t be spoken, because someone’s feelings might get hurt, but it should not be so among us. If we are offended, it is for others to see the horror of what they are doing, like when a parent’s eyes go wide in disbelief at something their child has said or done that is beneath their dignity. The Lord can’t be hurt emotionally and is not ashamed of His tender, undying love for us. His concern is for our own well-being. “Are they really offending me—oracle of the LORD—or rather themselves, to their own disgrace” (Jer. 7:19).

The Church was persecuted in a much more horrible way in Paris over 200 years ago during the French Revolution and the Reign of Terror. But sixteen Carmelite nuns offered prayers every day for the salvation of France. The nuns were interviewed by the anti-religious government authorities and told to renounce their religious vows, but they refused. They were accused as being enemies of the people and sentenced to death.

The sisters remained prayerful and surrendered to the Lord as they were paraded through the streets of Paris, praying their office and singing the Salve Regina. It is reported that the usually riotous crowd remained silent during their prayers and the execution of these Carmelites. Each sister renewed her consecration to Jesus before their prioress, Mother Theresa and kissed a statue of Mary before ascending the scaffold. The prioress was last to die and is reported as saying to the executioners: “I forgive you my friends, with all my heart, as I would have God forgive me.” The Reign of Terror ended shortly after their deaths. What a faithful, courageous and peaceful example they gave us.

God bless you,

Fr. Mike

In today's Gospel, even the child in Elizabeth's womb leaps with joy at the approach of Mary, the "lowly servant," who by accepting God's plan for her became blessed for all generations.

With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what household items and clothing you no longer use...and give it to the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

PROGRAM DEVELOPER:

Steve Bollman
Developer, That Man is You!
Founder & President, Paradisus Dei

During the Great Jubilee, Steve Bollman experienced a personal call to found a ministry dedicated to the renewal of marriage and family life. In 2002, he set aside his professional interests as an energy derivatives trader in Houston, Texas, to found Paradisus Dei. In 2004, Steve developed the That Man is You! Men's program, which quickly moved across the country transforming men, marriages and families. Independent research by a Faith Advisor to The Gallup Poll identified it as one of the most life transforming programs ever studied.

Are you of High School age or older and missing Baptism, First Communion, or Confirmation? Do you desire to be in full Communion with the Catholic Church? The Lord awaits all of us to answer His call to a deeper relationship with Him through His Church. This is only possible if we have the Sacraments that He gave His Church. We welcome all who desire to be in full communion with the Catholic Church to attend OCIA, formerly known as RCIA.

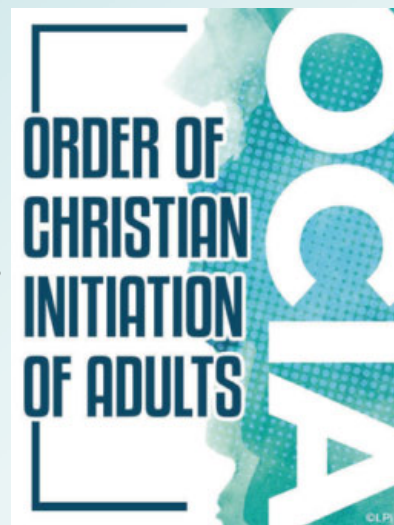

What is OCIA (RCIA)? The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a process for adults who wish to enter the Catholic Church or complete their Sacraments of initiation and is designed for the following:

- 1) those who have never been baptized
- 2) those who have been baptized in another Christian faith
- 3) those who have been baptized Catholic but never prepared for and received First Communion and/or Confirmation.

The OCIA sessions, hosted by our sister parish St. Paul of the Cross in Park Ridge, also provide opportunities for you to ask the questions you may have about the Catholic Church. You will be able to learn what the Catholic Church believes, teaches, and proclaims as revealed by God.

Who should I contact? If you would like more information, or to begin the process of OCIA (RCIA), please contact Hugo Munoz, Director of Lifelong Formation; email: hmunoz@archchicago.org

May the Holy Spirit continue to guide you towards a deeper conversion and relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church.

Parish Social - September 21, 2024

Please plan to join us for our annual Parish Social after the 4:00 p. m. Mass on Saturday, September 21 in the Moody Parking lot. Food, drinks, and entertainment for the whole family will be provided. Bring a friend or two!

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass
Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 54, Intercessions
by FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

After the Consecration, Memorial Acclamation, and our offering of Jesus to the Father along with ourselves, the Eucharistic Prayer also includes some Intercessions. The Diocese of Peoria teaches, “The Eucharistic prayer also intercedes or prays for various members of the Church. We always pray for the pope, the bishop and all the clergy. Intercession is also made for the Church suffering in purgatory, as we pray for the faithful departed. We pray that they soon be taken into Heaven and live in the presence of God. Intercession is also made for the entire Church, both those who are present at the Mass and those throughout the world. We pray God hears our prayers as we offer them through the Mass, we ask for His mercy and we also pray we be united so we may worship as one body as our Lord Himself desired” (A Study of the Mass, p. 16).

The Three Types of Intercessions

Diving deeper, this part of the Eucharistic Prayer brings to the forefront our unity with one another through Christ. We recall here in the presence of Christ that we are all in this together. We pray through the fruits of the Mass that each person can receive what is needed to fulfill our faithful life in Christ. What is great about the intercessions, according to Charles Belmonte, is that “the Intercessions make it clear that we celebrate the Mass in communion with the entire Church in heaven and on earth; and that we make the offering for the Church and for all her members, living and dead.” Belmonte continues, “The Intercessions are usually divided into three sections: for living Christians, for the dead, and in relation to the saints in heaven” (Understanding the Mass, p. 152–53).

Interceding for Church Leaders

Regarding our prayer for living Christians, part of our prayer is for the pope and for the bishop or archbishop of our local diocese. From Eucharistic Prayer II: “Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world, and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with N. our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy.” Our leaders in the clergy are part of the visible sign of unity we have together in Christ: we pray for and with our leaders who help organize and unite us. Belmonte refers to the Second Vatican Council when he says, “To be legitimate, each Mass presupposes union among the faithful, and of the faithful with their bishop, the pope, and the universal Church. Moreover, that solid union is made stronger with the celebration of the Eucharist and is a consequence of it” (Understanding the Mass, p. 154, cf. LG, 3).

Interceding for the Faithful Departed

After prayers for the living, we then pray for those who have died. From Eucharistic Prayer IV: “Remember also those who have died in the peace of your Christ and all the dead, whose faith you alone have known.” Eucharistic Prayers II and III have special sections that can be used for Masses for the Dead, where the name of the person for whom the Mass is offered could be prayed. As Belmonte continues, “In all Masses, the Church prays for the dead, so that on the basis of the communion existing among all of us as Christ’s members, our petition for spiritual help may bring comforting hope for our faithful departed” (Understanding the Mass, p. 155). For me as a priest, this is one of my favorite moments of the Eucharistic Prayer, especially when there is a moment of quiet in Eucharistic Prayer I: “Remember also, Lord, your servants N. and N., who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace.” Following these words, there is a brief silence where I think of different family members, priests who helped me through the years, and people who recently died in my parishes. If you haven’t done it before, I invite you to use that moment to think of those you love who have died in Christ. It truly is a great gift to feel united with them through the Mass!

Asking for the Intercession of the Saints

After prayers for the dead, we ask for the help of those already in the presence of God in heaven. This is the part of the Eucharistic Prayer where we might hear different saint names. From Eucharistic Prayer III: “May He make of us an eternal offering to you, so that we may obtain an inheritance with your elect, especially with the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with Blessed Joseph her Spouse, with your blessed Apostles and glorious Martyrs, (with Saint N) and with all the Saints, on whose constant intercession in your presence we rely for unflinching help.” A couple of the Eucharistic prayers have the Blessed Mother and a general reference to the martyrs and other saints. Eucharistic Prayer III (as we just saw) has an option for inserting saint’s names, such as the saint of the day or a saint important to a particular parish. Of course, Eucharistic Prayer I has those two long lists of special saints... more on them to come!
