JANUARY 12, 2025

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD
MY FAVOR
RESTS IN YOU

The Christmas Season is over, at least liturgically, with the Baptism of the Lord. It is fitting that the tender, heartwarming season of Christmas ends with Jesus' baptism in which He heard God the Father say to Him: "You are My beloved Son; with You I am well pleased." Jesus Christ was not baptized for His own sake, as John the Baptist rightly recognized, but for ours. The Lord's baptism gives us a chance to reflect on our own baptism and what it means.

Baptism makes us adopted children of God, but we don't start that way before baptism because of our fallen human nature. Satan has dominion over us as Scripture and the Church remind us: "The whole world is in the power of the evil one" (1 Jn 5:19). The salvation that Jesus won for us in part means a new identity and relationship with God.

Our next wave of the Rescue Project starts tomorrow, and Fr. Jonathan Ricardo, the creator of the Rescue Project, gives a powerful image for this effect of Baptism.

"Imagine growing up in a dysfunctional house. Parents who fight, an alcoholic father and abusive mom. There's verbal abuse, emotional abuse, physical abuse. Plates literally fly. You hate it there and do everything you can to not be home, you get involved in every sport and extracurricular activity and sneak in late at night to avoid their wrath or hand.

Across the street lives a happy family that you hear all the time, the father playing with the kids, laughing, having fun, playing catch, while you live in this horrible place. One day when you are the only person at home, you hear a knock at the door and it's the dad from across the street and he says, "Do want to come live with us?" You don't even pack but go with him right away. That's baptism, you move from the house of the tyrant to the house of the good Father."

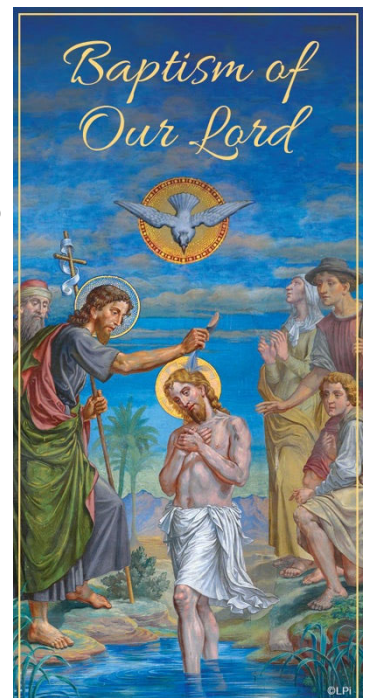

We have been rescued. The prayer of the Church in the Rite of Baptism says to the Father "You sent Your Son into the world to drive out from us the power of Satan, the spirit of evil, and bring the human race, rescued from darkness, into the marvelous kingdom of Your light." We are reborn in baptism into a new family with a loving Father and get to hear the same words that Jesus Christ, the Son heard from the Father. The Church and the local parish are meant to be the home where people feel safe to grow in faith and virtue.

Of course, no sacrament is magic and there must be a meaningful response on our part for the Lord's grace to bear fruit which is why the Church says to the parents of a child to be baptized: "You are undertaking the responsibility of raising him in the faith, so that, keeping God's commandments, he may love the Lord and his neighbor as Christ taught us. Do you understand this responsibility?" Still, baptism is never repeated even when we don't live into our potential but are prodigal children.

We will leave the church this weekend and bless ourselves with holy water in the sign of the Holy Trinity as a reminder of our baptism. May that blessing remind us of our personal relationship with the Lord: "You are my beloved son, you are my beloved daughter."

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. Mike

After Jesus was baptized, He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard: "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words: "You are my beloved in whom I am well pleased."

2024 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

If you would like a copy of the 2024 statement of your contributions to the parish, they will be available, by request, after January 15. You may request it by calling the parish office (773 763-8228) or emailing (parishoffice@setparish.org).

We would prefer that you pick it up or have it emailed to you. If necessary we will mail it to you.

Thank you for your continuing support of the parish.

SCHOOL SCIENCE FAIR JUDGES NEEDED

The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity School Science Fair will be on January 23, 2025 and we are in need of judges! As a judge, you will be evaluating students on their science fair presentation while also reading their written reports. Both projects have a rubric to follow. Anyone is able to volunteer (who does NOT have an 8th grade student enrolled in St. Elizabeth) but if you have a background in education, science, or medicine, that is a bonus, but not required. If you can help out on the 23rd from 3:00 - 4:30 p.m. , please contact Mrs. Kathy Dati at: k.dati@stelizabethtrinityschool.org

It is really a great experience and our students love showing off their projects!

THAT MAN IS YOU!

That Man is You! is designed to:

- Facilitate a personal encounter and relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Meet men wherever they are in their spiritual lives and help them take one step further.
- Turn the hearts of fathers to their spouse and children.
- Form authentic leaders capable of transforming their families and greater society.
- Form bonds of friendship and fellowship that strengthen the parish community.
- Provide a long-term solution for men's ministry and ongoing formation with over ten years of content.
- Have Honest Discussions About the Challenges Men Face
- That Man is You! honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers. The program harmonizes current social and medical science with the teachings of the Church and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of man fully alive!

Register using this QR Code: The 2nd semester will meet for 13 consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning February 4th from 8:15 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. For more information go to: tmiy.org.

STARTS TOMORROW!

Why is there something rather than nothing?

Why is everything so obviously messed up?

What if anything has God
done about it?

How should I respond?

Ever ask yourself these questions?

We invite you to join us for The Rescue Project.

Together we can discover The Story.

How Our Past Participants Described Their Experience of Encountering Jesus in the Rescue Project:

“It was a compelling and transformative experience, inspiring spiritual growth and deepening of faith”

“It was enlightening and thought provoking”

“I enjoyed meeting new people and talking about faith openly”

“I enjoyed the interaction with my table mates
and hearing their perspectives.”

“It was worth hearing and being reminded about what is really important”

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass
Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 74,
Private Silent Prayer
by FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

After the wonderful moment of receiving our Lord in Holy Communion, what should we do next? You got it: pray! According to the Diocese of Peoria, “After we receive the Most Holy Eucharist we return to our pew... This is a most opportune time to pray and talk with our Lord, whom we have just received” (A Study of the Mass, p. 20). The General Instruction of the Roman Missal instructs us that this period may be given over to quiet prayer or to singing: “When the distribution of Communion is over, if appropriate, the Priest and faithful pray quietly for some time. If desired, a Psalm or other canticle of praise or a hymn may also be sung by the entire congregation” (GIRM, 88). Depending on your parish traditions, there probably has been a Communion hymn or antiphon, which began after the priest received Communion. Your parish might also have a tradition of singing a Post-Communion hymn, sometimes called a hymn of thanksgiving. Many authors recommend that, in addition to these, there also be a period of silence.

The Importance of Silence

Fr. Guy Oury says that a period of silence is important: “The whole Church, the whole community, should take time to give silent thanks. It is important to do so, even if this has to be done after dismissal. This is the moment, if ever, to introduce a time of silence, as recommended also at other moments of the celebration. On the whole, however, the Eucharistic Prayer is much less silent than in the past, and the silence that favors recollection is a value not to be lost. Thanksgiving is absolutely indispensable in its collective form and its personal form. Sacramental effectiveness of the Eucharist does not work automatically. It requires dispositions. Mass itself is a thanksgiving, but thanksgiving does not cease with reception of Communion. It continues, and may extend to a hymn or a psalm said in common. There is much singing in the course of Mass, but at this moment it is well to let the peace of silence fall over the assembly” (The Mass, p. 123).

So, what kind of prayer is fitting during this time? Fr. Oury notes an anonymous author writing in Syria around the year 300 AD who gives us an example: “After receiving the precious Body and the precious Blood of Christ we give thanks to him for making us worthy to share in his holy mysteries and ask him that this partaking be not for judgment and condemnation but for salvation and the benefit of soul and body, for the preservation of piety, for the remission of sins and for the life of the world to come” (The Mass, p. 117). Perhaps this is a moment of prayer where thanks pour forth from our hearts as we recognize the wonderful gift we have been given. Maybe it is a moment to ask that we be strengthened for what we are facing. Hopefully, it is a moment to say from our hearts that we truly want to live in God’s love.

Silent but Active Prayer

Whatever our prayer is, Fr. Joseph McGloin reminds us that this time of silence shouldn’t be mindless and passive: “So, although this is a time of silence, it isn’t a time to prop ourselves upright, either kneeling or sitting, and doze off to dream of the upcoming day or the past night. It isn’t a time, either, to say, ‘Ok, Lord, do your thing,’ and then settle back to wait passively for Him to do it. That would be about as polite as welcoming a visitor into our home and then just sitting there while they entertained and feasted us. No, this moment of union with God after Holy Communion ought to be the most active, wonderful part of the Mass for us. We talk to him and we listen. His talk will be quiet talk—the way he almost always communicates with men... He wants to teach us, especially at this intimate moment, to love him in return. This will mean an active response on our part. Silent prayer doesn’t mean just sitting back in regal passivity, waiting for the gifts to be laid at our feet. A lady once complained to Fr. Walter Farrell, the great Dominican writer, that she couldn’t seem to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. ‘I begin a Hail Mary,’ she told him, ‘and then I look at the tabernacle and start to think about how good God is, and I never do finish my Hail Mary.’ She couldn’t pray? Here was a perfect prayer. And Mary would be the first one to admit that. The very purpose of our devotion to Mary (and all the saints) is to lead us to adoration of her divine Son” (How to Get More Out of the Mass, pp. 137–9).

So, let us use well this opportunity for prayer after Communion and grow closer to the Lord we have just received!
