FEBRUARY 16, 2025

6th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man." - Lk 6:22

--- This is the announcement weekend for the Annual Catholic entitled this year “Together we bring hope.” The in-pew commitment weekend when we hear the Cardinal’s homily will be next week. The ACA does a lot of good throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago including assisting in the formation of seminarians and priests, helping Catholic Relief Services, it offers financial assistance to disadvantaged Catholic school families, and gives support for parishes in challenged communities.

Historically, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity and its prior parishes have been generous in this pledge commitment, may that continue again this year. Once our parish goal is met, which is about $40,000, we receive the money beyond the goal as a rebate for the needs of our campus which are many. Right now, we are getting bids on having more handrails to assist entering and movement around the sanctuary which will be a great help for senior clergy or other ministers. Thank you in advance for your generous support for the Annual Catholic Appeal.

--- Last week’s tribute to JoAnn Keto for her years of service with the Night Players theatre group and St. Joseph Table went very well. It was quite touching to hear the testimonials from young and old about how acting and the stage productions and JoAnn’s guidance helped them feel more like part of the parish with a community around them. Special thanks to Ashley Guinn, Mike Parilla and all volunteers for making the event go off without breaking a leg.

--- Some sad news, we are still finding, though not as regularly, consecrated Hosts on the floor in church. Please keep your eyes open if you see the Lord laying in the hymnal racks or on the floor and let one of the clergy or an usher know right away. While we do have a few people on the lookout the church is large and there are many hiding places. We do have cameras in the church, that is how we were able to locate and help one of the people who was pretending to receive Jesus but then dropping the host on the ground. Without shame we helped that person. Let us pray for faith and true love for the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

--- We have some strong readings this weekend, “Thus says the Lord: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the Lord.” Jesus also gives us the Lukan beatitudes that says we’re happy/blessed when we’re poor, hungry, weeping, and hated on His account. Jesus also warns that we’ll be cursed/woe when we’re rich, filled now, laughing, and spoken well of like the false prophets. A pretty heavy message for us, what to make of it?

One way is context. In the Old Testament, Moses gave similar blessings and curses to the people and Jesus is the new Moses. Except Moses said that if the people followed God’s commandments, they would receive earthly blessings like children, health, crops, peace etc... All those blessings fade away though. Jesus’s promise this week is that if we suffer now for His sake especially; “Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold your reward will be great in heaven.”

Earthly blessings can easily lead our hearts to turn away from the Lord and become complacent or see ourselves as self-sufficient. Poor, hungry, and grieving people are very aware of their need and dependence on the Lord for all things. When we’re too comfortable and satisfied we sadly seldom put all our trust in the Lord. If the Lord has removed some of our earthly blessings it has been done out of His love and mercy to preserve our heavenly reward.

God bless,

Fr. Mike

Together we bring hope

2025 Annual Catholic Appeal

ONE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

For our parishes, schools, ministries and communities throughout Cook and Lake counties.

The Archdiocese of Chicago proclaims the gospel of Jesus Christ and carries on his mission through our parishes, schools and ministries. The Annual Catholic Appeal supports low-income parishes and their schools, religious education classes and other outreach programs, Catholic Relief Services, and the development of our priests, among other worthy programs and initiatives.

Together we bring hope through the Annual Catholic Appeal as we care for our Church and each other. As parishes meet their ACA goal, proceeds are returned to the parish to carry out the healing mission in their own local community.

With Heartfelt Gratitude

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we pray these days, we carry many intentions in our hearts. Consider three especially important intentions. We ask the Lord to bless and keep our nation after the elections. As a Church, we also pray to continue on a path of synodality after the October gathering of the synod in Rome. Finally, in the Archdiocese of Chicago, we ask for guidance and perseverance on the path of renewal and the revitalization of our parishes. A thread that links these prayers is a plea for the gift of hope as we move into the future.

Our 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal theme — Together we bring hope — and the Holy Year theme — Pilgrims of hope — are timely and opportune. Hope is a gift from God that enables us to take up our responsibility in our world, our Church, and our families. Hope is a gift that we share, a gift that we bring to others and do so together.

Please consider joining me to support this year's Appeal, so that we can bring hope to others. Your generous contribution — I can assure you — will be a source of blessing for many people and for you and your loved ones. Thank you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cupic
Archbishop of Chicago

YOUR GIFT SUPPORTS IMPORTANT MINISTRIES

Catholic Schools

The Annual Catholic Appeal helps to provide annual scholarship support to many Catholic school families eligible for financial aid. Your support puts a faith-filled, academically excellent and supportive education within reach.

Catholic Relief Services

For 80 years, Catholic Relief Services has represented the Church's healing presence worldwide. Without regard for religious affiliation, CRS promotes human development by responding to major emergencies, fighting disease and poverty, and nurturing peaceful and just societies. Through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the generosity of the people of the Archdiocese of Chicago supports this vital ministry.

The Office of Lifelong Formation

This office supports catechetical leaders in parish ministries, including Catechist Formation, Sacrament Preparation for Adults seeking the sacraments of marriage or confirmation, Youth Ministry for those who guide adolescents in high school, and Children and Family Ministry for those leading faith formation for elementary-aged children in religious education and sacrament preparation.

Office for Evangelization/Parish Renewal

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we support parishes as they create and implement a culture of evangelization and missionary discipleship. By helping people with hands-on practical support, including coaching, tools and other resources, we guide people as they encounter Christ, grow as disciples and go forth into the world as missionary disciples.

Office for Divine Worship

The Office for Divine Worship fulfills the vision of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy by developing and deepening liturgical life in archdiocesan parishes and institutions. The office supports, educates and forms liturgical ministers and other pastoral leaders, and it helps plan and facilitate all major archdiocesan liturgies. Among these are ordinations, the Rite of Election, the Easter Vigil, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, the annual Chrism Mass and the Calling to Continuing Conversion, which gathers those seeking to become part of the Body of Christ and the Church.

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives us the blessings of serving the poor, hungry, and weeping people, for you will then rejoice and leap for joy. But Jesus also teaches us the decisiveness of choice: blessing or woe.

Choosing to help those who are suffering will fill your heart with the blessing of Jesus and indeed your reward will be great in heaven.

Together we bring hope

2025 Annual Catholic Appeal

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme for 2025 is Together we bring hope. It echoes the theme that Pope Francis has given to the Holy Year Pilgrims of hope. It also resonates with our efforts of renewal in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Contributions to the Appeal enable us to bring real hope into our world, especially to those in need. We come together as the Lord's Church, and we demonstrate our love of God and our neighbor through our support of the Appeal. We foster the Church's mission to teach, to serve, and to sanctify in the name of Jesus Christ. Our support is a blessing for many.

Please consider supporting this year's Appeal. Your generous contribution will be a source of blessing for many people, for yourself, and for your loved ones.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - February 16, 2025 - 6th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Luke 6:17, 20-26)

I craved four things as a teenager: success in sports, food, fun and the attention of popular people. However, I noticed that as I acquired them, I was more unsatisfied than before. So, I'd strive even more energetically, achieve more, and the sense of emptiness was greater still. These four things started to feel like burdens or even curses. Soon after, I encountered Christ in my high school youth group. Experiencing his love was totally different than anything those four things previously produced. It produced a lasting happiness.

Jesus utters a kind of four-fold curse in this week's Gospel of Saint Luke's "woes": "Woe to you who are rich...who are filled now...who laugh now...who are well-spoken of" (cf. Luke 6:24-26). How marvelous that these correspond perfectly to the four things that obsessed my teenage soul: riches, food, laughter and good reputation. The "woes" the Lord speaks are warnings: when those things are the purpose of your life, you'll be miserable. He is saying, "You'll be happy, or blessed, in the measure that these things do not determine the shape of our lives, and the kingdom of God does."

To some degree, we're all spiritual teenagers, addicted to one or more of those four "woes." How splendid that the Lord wants his to bless us — that is, to satisfy us, make us laugh with joy, and in the kingdom of God, offer us what will truly satisfy us. But first let's admit what is causing our "woes."

— Father John Muir

A competitive game of all-school BINGO with Faith Partners

Prizes were won, and some upsets were had.

Playing games with the entire school can foster a sense of community, improve social interaction, enhance teamwork, boost student engagement, develop critical thinking skills, and promote positive competition, while creating a fun and collaborative learning environment across all grade levels.

Having just received a blessing through the hands of the priest, we now come to our last instruction and response in the Mass: the Dismissal. For this part of the Mass, the Roman Missal gives four options that can be used by the deacon (if there is one) or by the priest himself:

“Go forth, the Mass is ended.”

“Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.”

“Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

“Go in peace.”

To any of these, the people respond: “Thanks be to God.” Additionally, you may know that during the Easter Octave and the close of the Easter Season, we also add a double “Alleluia” to the end of these dismissal phrases.

A Sending Forth...

Do you notice anything consistent or repeated in these phrases of dismissal? They all begin with “Go”! Why do we say that? It definitely isn’t because the priest is ready to get on with his day! The Diocese of Peoria teaches, “After the [Prayer after Communion] beseeches God to give us grace to put our faith into practice, the Concluding Rite is ‘sending forth’ on this mission as disciples of Christ” (A Study of the Mass, p. 20). We have just prayed together, giving glory to God in the perfect Sacrifice of Christ in worship of the Father; after having been nourished by the Word of God in Scripture and the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, now we are ready to go forth out into the world. Each option of the dismissal is really an instruction: “Go forth”; “Go and announce the Gospel”; “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord”; “Go in peace.” In a real way, each of these phrases practically tells us what to do next, now that our time together at a particular Mass has drawn to a close.

As Edward Sri relates, “In the ancient world, it was customary to close an assembly with a formal dismissal. The early Christians felt the need to incorporate a similar conclusion to their liturgical assembly. From the fourth century onward, the Latin words Ite Missa est were employed for this task... What is most significant about this dismissal is that the whole liturgy receives its name, ‘the Mass,’ from the word Missa (‘dismissal’/‘sending’) in this closing line. This points to how the Mass ultimately should be seen as a sending forth. As the Catechism explains, the celebration of the Eucharist is called ‘Holy Mass’ (Missa) ‘because the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (missio) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their lives’” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, pp. 147–8; CCC, 1332).

... to Go Out on Mission

Did anyone notice that quote from the Catechism including the word missio sounds very much like mission? I have heard several priests explain that the end of Mass is truly a sending forth of the Christian people on mission. If you think about all we have received at the Holy Mass, our hearts and minds will be very full of God’s truth, goodness, and love. Of course, those are gifts that are meant to be shared! We live in a world that experiences the effects of sin and brokenness, a world that needs hope and light, a world that needs the fruits of the Mass!

As Edward Sri continues, “Jesus told the apostles, ‘As the Father has sent me, even so I send you’ (Jn 20:21). The Father sent the Son into the world, to die for our sins and give us a share in his divine life. As we have seen, the entire paschal mystery of Jesus’ passion, death... resurrection [and Ascension] is made present to us in the Eucharistic liturgy so that we can be more deeply incorporated into Jesus’ life and mission. The more deeply the Eucharist unites us to Jesus, the more we will radiate his life and his love in the world around us. The closing line of the liturgy, therefore, is not an aimless dismissal. It is a dismissal with a mission. It is a sending forth of God’s people to bring the mysteries of Christ into the world” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 148). The next time you are leaving Mass, I challenge you to think joyfully of all the fruits of that Mass and then ask yourself: How can I share these fruits with the people I meet?
