

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

MARCH 16, 2025

While I may not have the chance to follow current events as closely as some of you, especially with Lenten disciplines around social media, I did want to bring some awareness around the issue of IVF since it has made national news recently. The Trump administration has pledged support for In Vitro Fertilization, which stands directly opposed to God's will for procreation and seeing the child as a person to be received as a gift through the natural means made, not manufactured, with such collateral damage. I have personally seen the suffering of infertile couples struggling to conceive but there is a right and wrong way to go about it with God's grace and guidance. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has spoken very clearly and helpfully on this important issue:

"The IVF industry treats human beings like products and freezes or kills millions of children who are not selected for transfer to a womb or do not survive. Tuesday's executive order promoting IVF is thus fatally flawed and stands in regrettable contrast to the promising pro-life actions of the Administration last month.

Every human person is a precious gift with infinite dignity and worth, no matter how that person was conceived. People born as a result of IVF have no less dignity than anyone else. It is our moral responsibility to uphold the dignity of their brothers and sisters who are never given the chance to be born."

To learn more about in vitro fertilization, see: <https://www.usccb.org/prolife/reproductive-technology>. And for more on infertility, including ethical restorative reproductive medicine and research, please see: <https://www.usccb.org/topics/natural-family-planning/infertility>. I know infertility is a sensitive and painful reality for many, especially as couples now wait longer to start a family, but the Church and the Lord are here to help. God provides.

--- "This is My chosen Son; listen to Him." Lent is a time to fast, going without some creature comforts we may have overly relied on. It is a time to be more mindful of our charity towards the poor and those we live and work with, not delaying the good work we so often put off. But deep down, Lent also necessarily includes structured times of prayer, which is our lifeline to strengthen our relationship with the Lord.

The Father said of the Son, "listen to Him". How do we listen to Jesus? We all like to be listened to, especially after having been isolated for a while. I remember visiting a woman whose husband went off to the other room while I visited but came back after two hours and said to his wife "I've heard your voice the whole time" to which his wife responded, "what do you expect, I don't get out, I'm lonely." The Lord certainly wants us to talk to Him, Jesus even tells us to ask persistently, but we also need to try to listen to Him because our Heavenly Father already knows what we need.

So how do we listen? Do we take time to be quiet in the church, in our room, or prayerfully on a nature walk? Jesus waits in the Blessed Sacrament to comfort and encourage our hearts, especially when we feel lonely and like no one else will listen! Meditating on the Scriptures is one of the best ways to hear the Lord since it is His very Word. This is best done having already asked for what we think we need beforehand, so that we can see the Lord's personal response more clearly when we read the Scripture passage.

When we pray, we can say like St. Peter: "Master, it is good that we are here."

God bless,

Fr. Mike

Lent is a call not just to “give up something” but more important to “give something for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please support the St. Vincent de Paul Society so that together we can help the suffering and poor.

At the beginning of Lent, on Ash Wednesday, we gathered for Mass to receive our ashes. Lent is a time of reflection, repentance, self-discipline, almsgiving, prayer, and preparation for Easter. It's a time to remember Jesus's death and resurrection and to strengthen our relationship with God.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Step-by-Step Walk Through the Mass Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 82 Summary and Farewell by FR. LUKE SPANNAGEL

Once “the Mass is ended” and we go on our way, you might feel that there is more. What else should we think about? The Mass is only ended in terms of a particular parish family gathering coming to a temporary halt. As some of our favorite authors for this series have taught us, the Mass continues.

The Mass and Daily Life

During our review of the Mass, we have seen how God speaks to his people. We have reflected on the great gift of Jesus, who has given himself in sacrifice for the forgiveness of our sins. We have prayed through the great gift of the Mass that unites us to Our Lord’s saving sacrifice and invites us to participate. We have meditated on the Eucharist as our true source of unity with God and one another. We have prepared to go forth, recognizing that our mission is to share the fruits of the Mass out in the world. Along these lines, Charles Belmonte teaches about the mission of the Mass: “The Lord does not want us removed from our surroundings, our work, or our social relationships. He wants us in the world so that we might sanctify and improve it, and place at God’s feet all souls and institutions, all political life and all activities in general. Blessed Josemaria Escriva points out for us, ‘Your ordinary contact with God takes place where your fellow men, your yearnings, your work and your affections are. There you have your daily encounter with Christ. It is in the midst of the most material things of the earth that we must sanctify ourselves, serving God and all mankind.’ Therefore, the Mass should not be taken as a kind of escape from our duties” (Understanding the Mass, p. 198).

Similarly, Fr. Guy Oury writes, “What remains after [the Concluding Rites of the Mass] is to go and live the Mass we have celebrated and the Communion we have received: to live it in abiding union with the Father’s will and in union with one another. Mass does not end at the Church door. There is no line of demarcation between worship and life” (The Mass, p. 124).

Seeing unity in our life inside and outside Mass, Belmonte writes (including some words from Pope St. Paul VI) that “we should turn to our daily occupations to find God also in these pursuits. Thus, we will avoid leading a double life: ‘on one side, an interior life, a life of relation with God; and on the other, a separate and distinct, professional, social, and family life, full of small earthly realities. No! We cannot lead a double life... There is just one life, made of flesh and spirit. And it is this life which has to become, in both soul and body, holy and filled with God. We discover the invisible God in the most visible and material things. There is no other way. Either we learn to find our Lord in ordinary, everyday life, or else we shall never find him’” (Understanding the Mass, p. 198).

Some Final Thoughts from Fr. Luke

For me, as this series draws to a close, I am struck by how rewarding and enriching this step-by-step journey through the Mass has been! No doubt, there are others who are more scholarly or more original. Likely, there are some spiritualities and blessings of the Mass that could have been reviewed in more detail. Hopefully, these reflections have been helpful for all of you. I hope they have been an invitation to learn more about the wonderful gift of the Mass. I pray they have been a jumping-off point for more prayer and learning in the years ahead!

With a thankful heart, we go forward. We recall the great truths and gifts shared along the way. The Mass truly is an encounter with the Lord Jesus, in his Word, through the priest and assembled community, but most especially in his very Body and Blood in the Most Holy Eucharist. As we know, the Mass isn’t just a once-a-week kind of activity, not just something we “turn on” and then “turn off” when we are finished. Rather, the Mass changes us and makes us more like Christ, perfects us, and prepares us for heaven. This change is not just internal but must be lived out in the world so that others may be brought to the fruits of the Mass, both in this life and in the eternal Banquet of the Lamb in heaven. I pray that you will always be able to find Christ truly present in the tabernacle, on the altar, and in the midst of living life. I pray that you will always find him! I pray that the fruits of the Mass will be with you out in the world, and I pray with great hope for the joy of all being joined together in perfect worship of God, joined together at the great Banquet of Heaven!
