

ST. ELIZABETH of the Trinity

AUGUST 10, 2025

19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

- Lk 12:39-40

FROM FR. DEO

Aug. 10, 2025

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Peace be with you! We're halfway through the Novena for the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. My weekly meditation connects the Sunday readings with the Assumed Virgin Mary whom we venerate as our Mother and the Icon of faith and hope. This 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us into a journey of faithful and hopeful vigilance, and trust in God's promises.

The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that "faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." The author refers to Abraham, our father in faith, who obeyed God's call without knowing where he was going. He trusted in God's promise even when it seemed impossible. He lived as a pilgrim, always moving forward in faith, trusting God's word. Abraham's faith is a model for us to follow. We experience situations that put our faith to the test, such as the loss of a loved one, unanswered prayers, illness, financial hardship, broken relationships and spiritual dryness. We question God's power, and it even becomes difficult to trust in Him. However, only faith can bring light and meaning to our life. Faith does not mean that we will have answers to all our problems but requires us to trust in God who has all answers.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us not to live in fear, but in trust and readiness: "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom." Therefore, Jesus invites us to practice vigilance in the parable of the servants who remain ready for their master's return: "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival." We must live each day as if it matters eternally, not in fear, but in watchful love and daily faithfulness. Vigilance means living each moment in communion with God through prayer, love, and service of our neighbor. But how can we watch while serving the Lord? Am I living with the readiness of a faithful servant? Do I truly trust God's promises? The Blessed Virgin Mary is our model of joyful faith and hopeful readiness for the Lord.

Mary's Assumption into Heaven is a sign of hope for believers that what God did in her, He promises to do in us. She is the "first fruit" of the resurrection (CCC §966). The Assumption proclaims the final victory of grace over sin, of life over death. Mary was preserved from sin by a special grace of God, and she remained faithful to God throughout her life. Because of this, her body—the temple of the Word of God—was not abandoned to the corruption of the grave. In a world where death and suffering seem to have the final word, the Assumption reminds us that, like Mary, we're destined to have a share in Christ's glorious resurrection.

Mary believed the angel's message and consented to God's will, even though she didn't fully understand what it meant. This act of radical trust is the clearest biblical example of living faith. She is "the first and most perfect disciple of Christ" (John Paul II), and the "one who believed fully in God's word, becoming a mirror of the Church's faith" (Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei, §58). She believed even when it seemed like the promise was lost. Her life and her Assumption remind us that our present suffering and struggles are not the end. Heaven is real, and it is our true home. Let us imitate her faith and trust in God and show her our filial love and devotion by praying the Rosary.

In our parish news, the Parish and School staff will have a retreat on August 14th. We ask for your prayers as we discern how to better serve and bear witness to the Gospel in our ministries. As summer draws to a close and a new academic year begins, we invite all students—from preschool to college—to join us for a special "Back-to-School Blessing" next weekend. Our children need God's guidance, protection, and inspiration in the school year ahead. Finally, I'd like to remind you of our missionary challenge to invite at least one friend or family member to church. May our lives become a Magnificat—a song of praise to the God who lifts up the lowly and promises eternal life to all of us, Mary's children.

Happy Sunday and Blessed Assumption.

In Christ,

Fr Deo

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

Please help the St. Vincent de Paul Society bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven!"

Do You Want to Join the Catholic Church?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a process for adults, of high school age or older, who wish to enter the Catholic Church or complete their Sacraments of Initiation and is designed for the following:

1. Those who have never been baptized.
2. Those who have been baptized in another Christian faith.
3. Those who have been baptized Catholic but never prepared for and received First Communion and/or Confirmation.

The OCIA sessions, hosted by our sister parish St. Paul of the Cross in Park Ridge, provide opportunities for you to ask questions about the Catholic Church. You will learn what the Catholic Church believes, teaches, and proclaims as revealed by God.

The Lord awaits all of us to answer His call to a deeper relationship with Him through His Church. This is only possible if we have the Sacraments that He gave His Church.

If you would like more information, or to begin the process of OCIA, please contact Ashley Guinn, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Director of Evangelization and Lifelong Formation by email at aguinn@archchicago.org.

May the Holy Spirit continue to guide you towards a deeper conversion and relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church.
