

World Book Day

Recently some of our school's younger students celebrated World Book Day. The best way to spend a day celebrating books is at the library! Shelves full of stories, quiet corners, and endless possibilities! A perfect place to celebrate the magic of books.

