ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE HARVEST IS ABUNDANT.

Our Vision...

We are a vibrant Catholic parish family where all are welcomed to seek and be transformed by Christ, and to be sent forth to radiate Trinitarian love in daily life.

FROM FR. DEO

June 14, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

God is good all the time... All the time God is good!

This Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time calls us to respond generously to the Lord's invitation to participate in His mission: "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." The call to labor in God's harvest is not merely a task; it is a share in the very life and mission of Christ by extending the grace and mercy we've freely received.

Mission flows from identity. In the first reading, (Ex. 19:2-6a) God claims His people as His own: "...If you keep my covenant, You shall be my special possession ... a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Before we are sent on mission, we must first recognize who we are: beloved sons and daughters of God through Baptism. St. Paul reminds us that our mission is to share God's grace and mercy, revealed in Christ, who died for us while we were still sinners. Having received His mercy, we are called to extend it to others.

The Gospel (Mt 9:36—10:8) begins with Jesus' compassion and ends with the sending of the Twelve with a clear message: "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." Compassion always leads to mission. Before we can be sent outward, we must first encounter Christ within. Our patroness, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, teaches us that mission begins with God's presence within us. She believed deeply that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit dwell in every baptized person. The more we cultivate this interior relationship with God through prayer, the Eucharist, and the sacraments, the more we become capable of carrying Christ's presence to others.

Our parish can be truly missionary by welcoming everyone, serving the poor, supporting families, accompanying the youth, and empowering all members to share the Gospel. We are not simply parishioners who attend Mass. We are called to be disciples who have encountered Christ and are being sent to bring His compassion to others. The questions become: What can I do for our parish? How can I serve our parish? I invite you to discover your calling by exploring our liturgical ministries, engaging in community events, and participating in our upcoming parish initiatives like the Trinity Gala in November and the Generation-to-Generation Campaign.

As we continue to grow as a parish family, may we follow the example of St. Elizabeth by becoming living witnesses of God's compassionate love. United in faith and centered on Christ, let us answer the Lord's call to bring hope, healing, and joy to all who enter our doors and to all whom we meet.

In Parish News, please join us for an evening of Praise and Worship with the St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Guitar Ensemble this Sunday, June 14, at 5:00 p.m. in the School Auditorium.

The blessing of the image of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity has been postponed due to the artist's health constraints that affected her schedule. The new date will be announced soon. Keep her in your prayers.

Please keep all the priests of our Archdiocese in your prayers as we gather this week from June 15-18, in Wisconsin for our Convocation. May the Holy Spirit renew us in faith, strengthen our fraternity, and guide us in our mission of serving God's people. Be assured of our prayers for you as well.

St Elizabeth of the Trinity, Pray for Us.

Fr. Deo

In the Gospel today we hear Jesus say to His disciples, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send laborers for his harvest."

Have you considered answering the call to join the St. Vincent de Paul Society?

Altar Server Thank You's

With the end of the school year, it's time to acknowledge and thank the best Altar Servers in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Our 8th grade Servers have completed their commitment to Altar Serve until Graduation Day. Several of them have chosen to go above & beyond this initial agreement by continuing their Serving Ministry into high school. The good news is that, once again this year, we'll have an increase in the number of our Altar Servers. For the upcoming year, our parish will have 40 Altar Servers, 15 of whom will be serving in their high school years. Many thanks to our generous Servers and to their encouraging and supportive parents.

PRAY WITH THE POPE

JUNE: For the Values of Sports

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord of life,
we thank You for the gift of sport,
for those who glorify God through the exercise of their bodies,
for the friendships born on the field and the joy of playing as a team.

You teach us that in life, as in the game,
no one is saved alone.
We need others to grow,
to learn respect, to overcome our limits,
and to celebrate together the victories we achieve.

We ask that sport may always be a school of fraternity, not of empty rivalry,
a space of encounter, not exclusion,
a path of peace, not violence.

May those who play, train, or cheer discover in sport a universal language that brings cultures together, unites peoples, and sows respect, solidarity and personal growth.

Lord Jesus,
may every sport become a parable of life lived with You,
working with joy and effort,
living with humility in defeat and with gratitude in the victory You offer in Your Resurrection.
May your Spirit never be lacking in us, making us one team, united with You to build communion and fraternity in history.

Amen.

PLEASE NOTE

We now have addition handicapped parking in front of the east end of the school. (See the picture to the right.) These handicapped-only parking restrictions will be in place during our weekend Masses.

We thank Alderman Gardner for the installation of the signs and we thank you for your observance of these parking restrictions.

Parishioners' Corner

A 100th Anniversary Worth Remembering

In June 1926, which stadium was the site of an outdoor Mass attended by an estimated 150,000 persons inside the stadium - and another 150,000 outside?

If you replied, “Soldier Field, Chicago,” you are correct! And you score extra credit points if you added that the Chicago Bears did not play their first game in Soldier Field until November 1926.

The occasion for this extraordinary outdoor Mass was the 28th International Eucharistic Congress, June 20-24, 1926, hosted by the Archdiocese of Chicago. It is challenging to find words that adequately describe the monumental scope and colossal attendance at the Congress as well as the incredible boldness (some might say “audacity”) of George Cardinal Mundelein who convinced the Pope to approve Chicago as the host city.

Mundelein, who was in his early 50s and had been a cardinal for only two years, fearlessly approached Pope Pius XI and convinced him that the U.S. was no longer “mission territory” and that Chicago was not an unsophisticated “wild west” city. At its time, this International Congress in Chicago was the largest body of Church leaders ever to convene outside of Rome.

A reliable report estimated that 800,000 visitors came to Chicago for the Congress. With pilgrims filling every hotel in the area, some visitors spent nights in Pullman sleeping cars parked in Chicago rail yards. In addition, Catholics across the city hosted visitors in their homes. A representative of Pope Pius XI attended the Congress as well as bishops from China and New Zealand. Closer to home, more than 900 Catholics from Mexico, including many priests, arrived on chartered trains.

The opening Mass for the Congress at Holy Name Cathedral featured liturgical music by The Chicago Symphony Orchestra. The following day was the centerpiece: Mass at Soldier Field with 300,000 faithful present. Then, the next day, there was a Children’s Mass at Soldier Field, with a specially trained (mostly by nuns) choir of 60,000 students.

In addition, there was a Women’s Day Mass, attended by 250,000 women, including 20,000 nuns. One choir featured more than 6,000 nuns; another, 3,500 women from local church groups. In addition, during the multi-day event, more than 3,000 priests were especially designated to hear confessions.

On the final day, several local railroad companies dispatched trains to the suburb of Mundelein every two minutes for a Mass on the seminary grounds. After the Mass, there was a two-mile procession that followed a three-mile route in the area. Observers said that it was nothing short of miraculous that the transportation and crowd arrangement logistics for this emboldened excursion were successfully and safely managed.

Cardinal Mundelein was particularly proud that the Congress did not accept business funding, but rather this event was supported by the Catholic faithful.

Of laudable significance, Cardinal Mundelein and the leaders of the Congress emphatically underscored that the spectacular grandeur of the events were not meant to overshadow its primary purpose, namely, the enthronement of the sacramental Christ in the hearts of its visitors and Chicagoans. The amazing story and the tremendous number of participants in various events were carefully compiled in a 500+ page report published by the Committee for the Congress.

The 1926 International Eucharistic Congress was an epic moment for all Chicagoans. What’s more, it was a faith-filled, inspirational, and never-to-be-forgotten event for Chicago Catholics.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time – June 14, 2026

Gospel: Matthew 9:36-10:8

Reflection: Jesus looks on the crowds with compassion and sends His disciples to continue His work. Our parish shares in that mission today. Your generosity through legacy gifts helps ensure that Christ's healing, hope, and presence remain alive here for future generations.

Take away of the week: Continue to do Christ's work with compassion.

Continue an act of mercy and leave a legacy to bring hope to the world: As we stand before God's promise to make all things new, please consider one of the greatest acts of stewardship by including a gift to our parish in one of the following ways:

- Will or Trust
- Retirement Assets
- Life Insurance Policies
- Charitable Gift Annuity

*“It seems to me that I have found my heaven on earth,
because my heaven is You,
my God,
and You are in my soul.
You in me,
and I in You – may this be my motto.”*
St. Elizabeth of the Trinity
