

One year of Sharing and Community Building

A year ago, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity introduced a new feature in the Sunday Bulletin called "Parishioners' Corner." The initial focus of the contributors was a look back on their personal experiences in regard to this parish, as well as reflections on their faith journey.

Since then, the scope of "Parishioners' Corner" has expanded and included a rich diversity of topics. Here are some examples:

- Reports about specific parish ministries, with notes about their purpose and how they help to advance the mission of the parish.
- Personal reflections about praying and living one's faith day to day -- especially in times of difficulties.
- Thoughts about particular liturgies and religious devotions.
- Comments about books which provided insights and new perspectives about faith.
- Descriptions of travel and visits to churches, shrines, and faith centers.
- Stories about favorite saints and their importance.

The articles featured on this page range from the factual to the inspirational. Some articles have been deeply personal and signed by the parishioner. Others have been anonymous. Many have included photos and images. Contributors have even included students from our religious education program.

In brief, the wide variety of "Parishioners' Corner" articles represent a wonderful collection of information, ideas, questions, and thought-provoking personal stories.

Sincere thanks go to all those who shared their thoughts and contributed articles. Likewise, thanks to all who have thoughtfully read the articles and offered feedback and encouragement.

To keep this "Parishioners' Corner" going, we need your help and your article. Every parishioner has something valuable to contribute. Please seriously and prayerfully consider writing an article for "Parishioners Corner," which can then be emailed to the Rectory (parishoffice@setparish.org) or dropped off in person. The articles can be handwritten, and they are reviewed with the author before publication.

Can't get started? Please let us know – we can help.

Be assured that "Parishioners' Corner" is a comfortable space for sharing. And there is no need to be concerned about perfect grammar or a specific writing style. As our parish moves forward with gratitude for the past and hope for the future, we pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us.
